

1 Marc Toberoff (CA State Bar No. 188547)
2 mtoberoff@toberoffandassociates.com
3 Douglas Fretty (CA State Bar No. 279829)
4 dfretty@toberoffandassociates.com
5 TOBEROFF & ASSOCIATES, P.C.
23823 Malibu Road, Suite 50-363
Malibu, CA 90265
Telephone: (310) 246-3333
Facsimile: (310) 246-3101

6 Attorneys for Plaintiff David Zindel, as Trustee
7 for the David Zindel Trust and the Lizabeth Zindel Trust

8 UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
9 CENTRAL DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

10 DAVID ZINDEL, as Trustee for the 11 David Zindel Trust and the Lizabeth
12 Zindel Trust,

13 Plaintiff,

14 vs.

15
16 FOX SEARCHLIGHT PICTURES,
17 INC., a Delaware corporation;
18 TWENTIETH CENTURY FOX
19 FILM CORPORATION, a Delaware
20 corporation; TSG
21 ENTERTAINMENT FINANCE
22 LLC, a Delaware limited liability
23 company; MACMILLAN
24 PUBLISHERS, LTD., a subsidiary of 25 a German limited liability company;
GUILLERMO DEL TORO, an individual; DANIEL KRAUS, an individual; and DOES 1 through 10, inclusive,

26 Defendants.

Case No.: 2:18-CV-01435

COMPLAINT FOR:

- [1] COPYRIGHT INFRINGEMENT
(17 U.S.C. §§ 101 ET SEQ.);
- [2] CONTRIBUTORY COPYRIGHT INFRINGEMENT; and
- [3] VICARIOUS COPYRIGHT INFRINGEMENT

DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

1 Plaintiff DAVID ZINDEL, as Trustee for the David Zindel Trust and the 2 Elizabeth Zindel Trust, by and through his attorneys of record, hereby alleges as 3 follows:

4 NATURE OF THE ACTION

5 1. Defendants' motion picture The Shape of Water (the "Picture"), 6 though presented to the public as a highly original work of fantasy/science
7 fiction, in reality, brazenly copies the story, elements, characters, and themes
8 from a work by Pulitzer-Prize-winning author Paul Zindel ("Zindel"). Zindel's
9 1969 play Let Me Hear You Whisper (the "Play") tells the story of a lonely 10 janitorial cleaning woman who works the graveyard shift at a scientific 11 laboratory facility that performs animal experiments for military use. There she 12 becomes fascinated by a fantastic intelligent aquatic creature, held captive in a 13 glass tank. To the sounds of romantic vintage music playing on a record player, 14 she forms a deep, loving bond with the creature, discovering that it can 15 communicate – but chooses to do so only with her. When she learns that the 16 authorities plan to kill the creature, in the name of scientific progress, she 17 hatches a plan to liberate the creature in a rolling laundry cart and release it at a 18 dock that feeds into the ocean, where it will finally be free.

19 2. Defendants have plainly incorporated numerous copyright 20 protectible literary elements from the Play in their Picture. The Picture was 21 publicly released in December 2017 to much fanfare, garnering nominations 22 from dozens of associations, including thirteen nominations for "Best Original 23 Screenplay." Although the Picture has struck a chord with audiences 24 worldwide, filmgoers familiar with Zindel's Play have roundly recognized the 25 Picture as copying the Play, and have publicly criticized its creators for not 26 crediting Zindel's work.

27 3. Zindel's Play has been widely read, performed for decades. The 28 Play was also adapted into two made-for-TV productions which respectively

1 aired on public television in 1969 and on the A&E network in 1990, and have 2 been repeatedly re-broadcast on national television. The Play has been 3 published in at least ten print editions and is frequently taught in American 4 schools and staged in live productions.

5 4. In short, the highly original Play is a beloved work of 6 fantasy/science fiction by an esteemed author, making the glaring similarities 7 between the Picture and the Play too egregious to ignore. Furthermore, 8 Defendants' public statements about the Picture belie their blanket denials of 9 infringement. For instance, Defendant DANIEL KRAUS, a producer of the 10 Picture, reportedly pitched the idea for the Picture to its writer/director/producer, 11 Defendant GUILLERMO DEL TORO. Significantly, KRAUS is both on record 12 as an admirer of Zindel's work, and came up with the "idea" for the Picture the 13 very year the A&E production of Zindel's Play first aired on national television.
14 These and other telling details from the writing and production of the Picture 15 strongly evidence that Defendants knowingly infringed Zindel's Play. Indeed, 16 without Zindel's Play, which artfully blended an emotional human drama with a 17 highly original science fiction story, it is difficult to imagine that the Picture 18 could have connected so profoundly with audiences and critics.

19 5. When Defendants first realized that they were producing a 20 derivative film, they were obligated to obtain a straightforward license from the 21 Zindel family and to give fair credit to Zindel's original Play. Instead,
22 Defendants did nothing, necessitating this action to vindicate Zindel's
23 copyrights, and to prevent Defendants from exploiting a celebrated author's 24 creativity without due recognition.

25 JURISDICTION AND VENUE

26 6. This is a civil action for copyright infringement and injunctive 27 relief under the United States Copyright Act, 17 U.S.C. §§ 101 et seq.
28 (hereinafter, "the Copyright Act") and for declaratory relief under the

1 Declaratory Judgment Act, 28 U.S.C. § 2201.

2 7. This Court has original subject matter jurisdiction over the claims
3 set forth in this complaint pursuant to the Copyright Act, 17 U.S.C. § 101 et
4 seq., 28 U.S.C. §§ 1331, 1332, and 1338(a) and (b), and the Declaratory
5 Judgment Act, 28 U.S.C. § 2201.

6 8. This Court has personal jurisdiction over the Defendants in that 7 Defendants are regularly doing business in the State of California and in this 8 District, and because a substantial portion of the relevant acts complained of 9 herein occurred in the State of California and in this District.

10 9. Venue is proper in the United States District Court for the Central 11 District of California pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1391(b) and (c) and 1400(a) 12 because the wrongful acts that give rise to the claims herein below occurred in 13 this District and because Defendants FOX SEARCHLIGHT PICTURES, INC., 14 TWENTIETH CENTURY FOX FILM CORPORATION, and TSG 15 ENTERTAINMENT FINANCE LLC, and GUILLERMO DEL TORO reside in, 16 have places of business in, and/or maintain offices in this District.

17 PARTIES

18 10. Plaintiff DAVID ZINDEL is an individual and citizen of, and 19 resides in, the State of California, in the County of Los Angeles, and is and at all 20 times has been a citizen of the United States. DAVID ZINDEL is the son of the 21 author Paul Zindel and the brother of Lizabeth Zindel. DAVID ZINDEL serves 22 as the Trustee of the David Zindel Trust and Lizabeth Zindel Trust, each of 23 which own an undivided 50% interest in Paul Zindel's literary works.

24 11. Plaintiff is informed and believes and based thereon alleges that 25 Defendant FOX SEARCHLIGHT PICTURES, INC. (hereinafter "FOX 26 SEARCHLIGHT") is a corporation organized and existing under the laws of the 27 State of Delaware, which has its corporate headquarters in the State of California 28 and the County of Los Angeles, and which regularly conducts significant

1 ongoing business in the State of California and in the County of Los Angeles.
2 Plaintiff is further informed and believes and based thereon alleges that FOX
3 SEARCHLIGHT is a wholly owned subsidiary and/or division of Defendant
4 TWENTIETH CENTURY FOX FILM CORPORATION.

5 12. Plaintiff is informed and believes and based thereon alleges that
6 Defendant TWENTIETH CENTURY FOX FILM CORPORATION (hereinafter 7 “FOX”) is a corporation organized and existing under the laws of the State of 8 Delaware, which has its corporate headquarters in the State of California and the 9 County of Los Angeles, and which regularly conducts significant ongoing 10 business in the State of California and in the County of Los Angeles.

11 13. Plaintiff is informed and believes and based thereon alleges that 12 Defendant TSG ENTERTAINMENT FINANCE LLC (hereinafter “TSG”) is a 13 limited liability company organized and existing under the laws of the State of 14 Delaware, which has its principal place of business in the State of New York and 15 the County of New York, and which regularly conducts significant ongoing 16 business in the State of California and in the County of Los Angeles.

17 14. Plaintiff is informed and believes and based thereon alleges that
18 Defendant MACMILLAN PUBLISHERS, LTD. (hereinafter “MACMILLAN”)
19 is a privately-held international publishing company and subsidiary of 20 Holtzbrinck Publishing Group, a German limited liability company. Plaintiff is 21 informed and believes and based thereon alleges that Defendant MACMILLAN 22 has its principal place of business in the State of New York and County of New 23 York and regularly conducts significant ongoing business in the State of 24 California and in the County of Los Angeles.

25 15. Plaintiff is informed and believes and based thereon alleges that 26 Defendant GUILLERMO DEL TORO (“DEL TORO”) is an individual and 27 citizen of and resides in the State of California and the County of Los Angeles.
28 Plaintiff is further informed and believes and based thereon alleges that

1 Defendant DEL TORO regularly conducts significant ongoing business in the 2 State of California and in the County of Los Angeles.

3 16. Plaintiff is informed and believes and based thereon alleges that 4 Defendant DANIEL KRAUS (“KRAUS”) is an individual and citizen of, and 5 resides in the State of Illinois, and is and at all times has been a citizen of the 6 United States. Plaintiff is further informed and believes and based thereon
7 alleges that Defendant KRAUS regularly conducts significant ongoing business, 8 including without limitation the conduct giving rise to this action, in the State of 9 California and in the County of Los Angeles.

10 17. Plaintiff is informed and believes and based thereon alleges that the 11 fictitiously named Defendants captioned hereinabove as Does 1 through 10, 12 inclusive, and each of them (hereinafter “DOE(S)”) were in some manner 13 responsible or legally liable for the actions, damages, events, transactions and 14 circumstances alleged herein. The true names and capacities of such fictitiously 15 named defendants, whether individual, corporate, associate, or otherwise are 16 presently unknown to Plaintiff, and Plaintiff will amend this Complaint to assert 17 the true names and capacities of such fictitiously named Defendants when the 18 same have been ascertained. For convenience, each reference herein to a named 19 Defendant or to Defendants shall also refer to the Doe Defendants and each of 20 them.

21 18. Plaintiff is informed and believes and based thereon alleges that 22 each of the Defendants was the agent, partner, servant, employee, or employer of 23 each of the other Defendants herein, and that at all times herein mentioned, each 24 of the Defendants was acting within the course and scope of such employment, 25 partnership and/or agency and that each of the Defendants is jointly and 26 severally responsible for the damages hereinafter alleged.

27 //

28 //

1 introverted and keeps to herself. Inside one of the laboratories, she discovers an 2 aquatic creature of advanced intelligence (a dolphin) confined to a glass tank,
3 and begins a loving relationship with the creature, discovering that it can indeed
4 communicate – but chooses to do so only with her. When she learns that 5 authorities at the laboratory plan to kill the creature via “vivisection,” ostensibly
6 in the name of scientific progress, Helen hatches a plan to sneak the creature out
7 of the lab in a laundry cart, and release him at a dock on an urban river that feeds
8 into the ocean, where he will finally be free.

9 23. The Play has also been widely published in print form. The Play
10 was published in Scholastic Voice on or about April 6, 1970 and was published 11 again by Dramatists Play Service Inc. in 1973. In 1974, Harper & Row re-12 published the Play with minor abridgements in a hardcover edition that was 13 illustrated by the popular artist Stephen Gammell, who is perhaps best known
14 for his fantastical illustrations in the Scary Stories To Tell in the Dark book 15 series. Plaintiff is informed and believes and on that basis alleges that both the 16 unabridged and abridged versions of the Play have been widely reviewed, taught 17 in American schools, and performed in live productions since their publication.

18 24. The Play has also been repeatedly published in anthologies with 19 other theatrical works. For example, the Play appears in the anthologies 6
20 Science Fiction Plays (Pocket Books, New York, 1975) (the “6 Science Fiction 21 Plays Anthology”); In Context (Anthology One) (Nelson Canada 1989); and Best
22 Plays: Introductory Level (McGraw Hill) (the “Best Plays Anthology”).

23 Plaintiff is informed and believes and on that basis alleges that the Best Plays
24 Anthology was published in or about 1997 and re-published in or about 2001
25 and 2005. The 6 Science Fiction Plays Anthology is a significant anthology, 26 because it includes The City on the Edge of Forever by Harlan Ellison, which 27 became the highly popular 1967 Season One finale episode of the original Star 28 Trek series. Plaintiff is informed and believes and on that basis alleges that the 1 Play has been reprinted in at least four additional anthologies.

2 25. Thus, the Play’s reach and exposure has been substantial, resulting 3 in at least ten print publications, two national television productions, and many 4 more live productions.

5 26. In addition to the two television productions of the Play, Zindel’s 6 thought-provoking books, plays, teleplays, and screenplays have resulted in at 7 least seven film and TV productions of his work. Zindel was also a beloved 8 teacher and lecturer. He began his career as a science teacher, a background that 9 informed many of the original scientific elements for the Play. Even amidst his 10 success as an author, he continued to speak at schools and libraries all over the 11 world, and taught graduate students at the University of Southern California, on 12 the condition that he could give all of his students an “A.”

13 27. Zindel died on March 27, 2003. Zindel’s copyrights to his literary 14 works, including the Play, were bequeathed to and are currently owned by the 15 testamentary trusts of his two children and heirs, David Zindel and Lizabeth
16 Zindel as follows: 50% by the David Zindel Trust and 50% by the Lizabeth 17 Zindel Trust. Plaintiff David Zindel is the trustee of both Trusts.

18 28. The 1969 version of the Play containing minor abridgements, 19 published in Scholastic Voice on April 6, 1970, was registered with the United 20 States Copyright Office on May 22, 1970 (Registration number B596267). A 21 true and correct copy of the United States Copyright Office registration 22 certificate for the 1969 version of the Play is attached hereto as “Exhibit A.”

23 29. Plaintiff David Zindel, as Trustee for the aforementioned 24 testamentary trusts, duly filed an application with the United States Copyright
25 Office on February 16, 2018 to register the renewal copyright to the 1969
26 version of the Play pursuant to 17 U.S.C. §§ 304(a)(2), (a)(3); Pub. L. No. 102-
27 307, 106 Stat. 264 (June 26, 1992). A true and correct copy of Plaintiff’s
28 application for renewal registration of the Play, pending with the United States

1 Copyright Office, is attached hereto as Exhibit “B.” Plaintiff David Zindel, as 2 Trustee for the testamentary trusts, also duly filed an application with the United 3 States Copyright Office on February 16, 2018 to register the copyright and 4 renewal copyright to the unabridged Play, pursuant to 17 U.S.C. §§ 304(a)(2), 5 (a)(3); Pub. L. No. 102-307, 106 Stat. 264 (June 26, 1992). A true and correct
6 copy of Plaintiff’s application for the renewal registration of the copyright to the 7 Play, pending with the United States Copyright Office, is attached hereto as 8 Exhibit “C.”

9 The Picture

10 30. Defendants premiered The Shape of Water (the “Picture”) at the 11 Venice Film Festival on or about August 31, 2017, and released the Picture 12 theatrically on or about December 1, 2017. Plaintiff is informed and believes 13 and based thereon alleges that Defendant FOX SEARCHLIGHT served as the 14 production company and distributor of the Picture; Defendant TWENTIETH 15 CENTURY FOX co-financed and is distributing the Picture; Defendant TSG co-
16 financed the Picture; Defendant DEL TORO is credited as the writer/director/
17 producer of the Picture; and Defendant KRAUS acted as an associate producer 18 on the Picture, and contributed to the Picture’s story and screenplay.

19 31. The Picture tells a story that is substantially similar, and in many 20 ways identical, to that of the Play. The Picture centers on a lonely janitorial 21 cleaning woman, Elisa, who works at a laboratory facility that performs marine 22 experiments for sinister, military purposes in the 1960s (during the height of the 23 Cold War). Elisa works with a talkative, humorous cleaning woman who 24 complains about her marriage to her husband, whereas Elisa is mute and 25 introverted. Inside one of the laboratories, Elisa discovers an aquatic creature of 26 advanced intelligence (an amphibian man) confined to a glass tank, and begins a 27 loving relationship with the creature, discovering that it can indeed communicate 28 – but chooses to do so only with her. When she discovers that authorities at the

1 laboratory plan to kill the creature via “vivisection,” ostensibly in the name of 2 scientific progress, Elisa hatches a plan to sneak the creature out of the lab in a 3 laundry cart and release him at a dock on an urban canal that feeds into the 4 ocean, where he will finally be free.

5 32. Despite the glaring similarities between the Play and the obviously 6 derivative Picture, Defendants never bothered to seek or obtain a customary 7 license from Plaintiff of motion picture and ancillary rights to the Play, nor did 8 Defendants credit Zindel on the Picture. Instead, the Picture is credited as 9 purportedly written solely by DEL TORO and Vanessa Taylor, based on a story 10 by DEL TORO.

11 33. Plaintiff is informed and believes and based thereon alleges that 12 Defendants and/or their officers, agents, employees, licensees and assigns, 13 and/or persons acting in concert with them, had ready access to the Play, the 14 NET Production and A&E Production of the Play, and infringed the Play’s
15 copyright in creating the Picture, a clear derivative work based on the Play, 16 which copies and incorporates key aspects of the Play. Plaintiff is informed and 17 believes and on that basis alleges that Defendants and/or their officers, agents,
18 employees, licensees and assigns, and/or persons acting in concert with them,
19 had access to and knowledge of the Play by virtue of the widespread NET
20 Production and/or A&E Production, the numerous print publications of the Play, 21 and/or the live productions of the Play. The widespread publication of the Play
22 in all its forms, coupled with the detailed and pervasive similarities the Picture 23 bears to the Play, evince that Defendants and/or their officers, agents,
24 employees, licensees and assigns, and/or persons acting in concert with them
25 created, produced, financed, and/or distributed the Picture knowing that it 26 infringed Zindel’s original literary work.

27 34. The alleged history behind how Defendants DEL TORO and 28 KRAUS developed the story for the Picture further evinces that the Picture is

1 derived from the Play. According to an interview with DEL TORO published in 2 the January 2018 issue of Written By (the Writers Guild of America trade 3 magazine), DEL TORO had always wanted to make a film in the vein of The 4 Creature from the Black Lagoon, but he had “never found a way to do” the 5 story. The article then recounts a pivotal meeting between him and Defendant
6 KRAUS:

7 “Finally, over a breakfast with novelist Daniel Krause [sic] in 2011, the 8 code was broken. The novelist shared with del Toro a story idea ‘about a 9 janitor that kidnaps an amphibian-man from a secret government facility.
10 I said, ‘That’s the way in!’”

11 P. Hanson, “Del Toro’s Labyrinth,” Written By (Jan. 2018).

12 35. KRAUS himself described the same meeting in a December 2017
13 interview with the online publication io9: “I don’t remember how it came up, 14 exactly, but [DEL TORO] asked me what I was working on and for some reason 15 I brought up this idea[.]” See <https://io9.gizmodo.com/the-shape-of-water-novel-does-much-much-more-than-adap-1820895586> (the “io9 Interview”).
16 According to KRAUS’s website, the Picture is “[b]ased on an original idea by 17 Guillermo del Toro and Daniel Kraus.” See <http://www.danielkraus.com/>.

18 36. Significantly, KRAUS’s description of how he allegedly came up
19 with the “idea” for the Picture (that according to DEL TORO broke the story) 20 points to Zindel’s Play. In the io9 Interview, KRAUS claims that when he was 21 fifteen years old he “c[ame] up with the seed of a story about a creature locked 22 in a lab and a janitor that tries to break it out.” Based on public reporting, 23 Plaintiff is informed and believes and alleges that KRAUS was born in 1975, 24 and, accordingly was fifteen years old in 1990 when the A&E Production of 25 Zindel’s Play first aired. KRAUS’s io9 Interview further suggests that his 26 “idea” for the Picture came from watching television. Tellingly, KRAUS’ own 27 description of the “seed of a story” centers on “a janitor that tries to break” the 28

1 creature out of a laboratory, suggesting that the breakout attempt was 2 unsuccessful, just as in Zindel's Play.

3 37. Plaintiff is informed and believes and based thereon alleges that 4 during all relevant times Defendant KRAUS was well aware of Zindel and 5 admired his work. In or about June 2017, KRAUS published an article on 6 Booklist Online entitled "Booklist's 50 Best YA Books of All Time," for which 7 KRAUS wrote the introduction, naming Zindel's 1968 book The Pigman as the 8 third entry on his list. See https://www.booklistonline.com/Booklist-s-50-Best-
9 YA-Books-of-All-Time-Kraus-Daniel/pid=8945051. In his introduction, 10 KRAUS wrote, "We wanted to pay homage to august classics" as well as recent 11 works, and that "Literary quality was our highest qualifier[.]" Id.

12 38. Based on numerous public reports, Plaintiff is further informed and 13 believes and based thereon alleges that KRAUS and DEL TORO are both 14 lifelong, avid fans and consumers of science fiction and fantasy works. For his 15 part, DEL TORO is reported to have amassed a collection of science fiction and 16 fantasy books, artwork, and memorabilia so vast that they had to be kept in two 17 standalone houses, dubbed "Bleak House" and "Bleak House 2," which are 18 dedicated solely to housing DEL TORO's collection. See, e.g., 19 https://www.nytimes.com/interactive/2015/10/07/movies/11guillermodeltoro-
20 house.html. DEL TORO has told interviewers that the two houses are 21 "organized as a research library" with "13 libraries throughout." See G. Vitello, 22 "Guillermo del Toro: Gods and Monsters," Juxtapoz (Aug. 2016) at 97. He has 23 professed that he is "in love with books," id., and has "really 10,000 favorite 24 books." See <https://nypost.com/2009/06/14/in-my-library-guillermo-del-toro/>.

25 39. Significantly for this action, DEL TORO has publicly stated his 26 admiration for illustrator Stephen Gammell, calling his Scary Stories To Tell in 27 the Dark "a favorite book of my youth," and announcing that he plans to 28 produce a film adaptation of the book. See <https://litreactor.com/news/>

1 guillermo-del-toro-adapting-scary-stories-to-tell-in-the-dark. DEL TORO has 2 reportedly even collected several original Gammell drawings for display in 3 Bleak House. Id. Because Gammell was the illustrator for the 1974 edition of 4 Zindel’s Play, it is difficult to imagine that DEL TORO, an avid fan and 5 collector of Gammell’s work, and a devoted science fiction fan would be 6 unaware of the science fiction Play Gammell illustrated.

7 40. In short, it cannot be dismissed as mere coincidence that KRAUS, 8 and then DEL TORO in collaboration with KRAUS, supposedly came up with 9 an “idea” that substantially resembled Zindel’s Play. Plaintiff is informed and 10 believes and on that basis alleges that KRAUS and Defendants, through their 11 officers, agents, employees, licensees and assigns, and/or persons acting in 12 concert with them, willfully and intentionally included the story, characters, 13 themes and other original elements from the Play in their Picture, in violation of 14 Plaintiff’s copyrights and rights under copyright. In the past, Defendant 15 KRAUS has demonstrated a rather flippant attitude toward incorporating other 16 authors’ work into his own. During an online question-and-answer session with 17 fans in 2016, KRAUS was asked about his “research resources” for a book he 18 wrote. KRAUS answered: “I stole (grave robbed?) from everything I could.”
19 See https://www.reddit.com/r/books/comments/3vxz7x/im_daniel_kraus_
20 author_of_the_death_life_of/.

21 41. Plaintiff is informed and believes and on that basis alleges that 22 KRAUS and DEL TORO have written a novelization of the Picture, which they 23 and Defendants intend to distribute (the “Novelization”). Plaintiff is informed 24 and believes and on that basis alleges that Defendants MACMILLAN intends to 25 publish the Novelization under the MACMILLAN imprint Feiwel & Friends.
26 Plaintiff is informed and believes and on that basis alleges that MACMILLAN 27 plans to publish the Novelization on or about March 6, 2018. Plaintiff is 28 informed and believes and on that basis alleges that the Novelization reflects a

1 substantial portion of the story, elements, characters and themes depicted in the 2 Picture, that the Novelization likewise constitutes a derivative work of the Play, 3 and that, accordingly, the pending publication, sale, and distribution of the 4 Novelization will likewise violate Plaintiff’s copyrights and rights under 5 copyright in the Play.

6 Overwhelming Similarities
7 Between the Play and the Picture

8 42. Given that the Picture incorporates the story, elements, characters, 9 and themes – large and small – of the Play, the Picture is by any objective
10 measure substantially similar to Zindel’s highly original Play. Even minor 11 overlapping elements, such as unusual words, phrases, or images, are so 12 idiosyncratic that they are strong evidence of the pervasive influence and use of 13 Zindel’s literary work in the Picture.

14 43. Set forth below are some of the more obvious similarities between 15 the infringing Picture and the Play:

	The Play	The Picture
A. The story takes place during the 1960s (during the height of the Cold War).	The story takes place during the 1960s (during the height of the Cold War).	The story takes place during the 1960s (during the height of the Cold War).
B. The genre is a blend of emotional human drama with fantasy and science fiction.	The genre is a blend of emotional human drama with fantasy and science fiction.	The genre is a blend of emotional human drama with fantasy and science fiction.
C. The mood is dreamy and oftentimes surreal, with fantasy sequences inside the main character’s mind juxtaposed against real-world	The mood is dreamy and oftentimes surreal, with fantasy sequences inside the main character’s mind juxtaposed	The mood is dreamy and oftentimes surreal, with fantasy sequences inside the main character’s mind juxtaposed against real-world suspense.

1 suspense.

2

3 D. Thematically, the story indicts
4 mankind’s cruelty toward other
5 living creatures in the name of
6 scientific “progress,” and sends a
7 touching message that love and
8 empathy can overcome all odds and 9 lead to magical discoveries.

Thematically, the story indicts mankind’s cruelty toward other living creatures in the name of scientific “progress,” and sends a touching message that love and empathy can overcome all odds and lead to magical discoveries.

10

11 E. The locale is a metropolitan East
12 Coast city, close to a dock on a 13 river that flows to the ocean, which 14 is key to a later development in the 15 story.

The locale is a metropolitan East Coast city, close to a dock on a river canal that flows to the ocean, which is key to a later development in the story.

16

17 F. The setting is a secret laboratory
18 facility that conducts experiments
19 for military use.

The key setting is a secret laboratory facility that conducts experiments for military use.

20

21 G. The main character is Helen, an
22 unmarried, introverted cleaning
23 woman who lives alone in an
24 apartment.

The main character is Elisa, an unmarried, introverted cleaning woman who lives alone in an apartment.

25

26 H. Helen works the graveyard shift as 27 one of the janitors at the laboratory 28 facility.

Elisa works the graveyard shift as one of the janitors at the laboratory facility.

1
2 3
4
5 6
7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21
22
23 24
25 26 27
28

I. The action in the laboratory facility takes place between approximately midnight and dawn.

The action in the laboratory facility takes place between approximately midnight and dawn.

J. Six central characters interact at the laboratory facility: Helen (main character), Danielle (co-worker), Moray (Helen’s supervisor), Crocus (scientist), Fridge (Crocus’s assistant), and the creature.

Six central characters interact at the laboratory facility: Elisa (main character), Zelda (co-worker), Fleming (Elisa’s supervisor), Strickland (government operative with scientific knowledge), Hoffstetler (scientist), and the creature.

K. The action in the facility takes place in the laboratory, the hallway leading to the laboratory, a locker room for the custodial staff, and the service elevator used by Helen and laboratory personnel.

The action in the facility largely takes place in the laboratory, the hallway leading to the laboratory, a locker room for the custodial staff, and the service elevator used by Elisa and laboratory personnel.

L. Helen starts her night shift in an impersonal locker room at the lab facility where she hangs her coat and gathers her equipment.

Elisa starts her night shift in an impersonal locker room at the lab facility where she hangs her coat and gathers her equipment.

M. Helen’s co-worker at the laboratory

Elisa’s co-worker at the laboratory

1 is a garrulous, funny cleaning
2 woman, Danielle, remarked on for 3 her “idle chatter,” who prattles on 4 while Helen remains silent.

is a garrulous, funny cleaning woman named Zelda, remarked on for her “chatting,” who prattles on while Elisa remains silent.

5
6 N. Danielle makes pejorative remarks
7 to Helen about Danielle’s former 8 husband such as, “Biggest mistake I 9 ever made, getting married . . .”

Zelda makes pejorative remarks to Elisa about Zelda’s husband such as “takes a lot of lies to keep a marriage going”

10
11 O. At the lab facility cleaning women
12 like Helen and Danielle are treated
13 condescendingly as the lowest-
14 ranking employees.

At the lab facility cleaning women like Elisa and Zelda are treated condescendingly as the lowest-ranking employees.

15
16 P. A supervisor (Moray) keeps a close
17 eye on Helen and Danielle’s
18 activities inside the laboratory and
19 is regularly seen giving them
20 instructions about their work.

A supervisor (Fleming) keeps a close eye on Elisa and Zelda’s activities inside the laboratory and
is regularly seen giving them
instructions about their work.

21
22 Q. The supervisor (Moray) is an 23 anxious worry wart and sucks up to 24 the scientists at the lab facility.

The supervisor (Fleming) is an anxious worry wart and sucks up to authority at the lab facility.

25
26 R. Helen is presented as someone who 27 finds private comfort in orderly
28 daily routines.

Elisa is presented as someone who finds private comfort in orderly daily routines.

1

2 S. Helen is depicted as a
3 conscientious hard worker,
4 “immediately moving her
5 equipment into place and getting 6 down on her hands and knees to 7 scrub the floor,” including scraping
8 gum off the floor in the NET
9 Production of the Play.

10

11 T. In one of the laboratories that Helen 12 cleans, she finds that there is a 13 fascinating aquatic creature (a 14 dolphin), held captive inside a 15 closed and claustrophobic glass
16 water tank.

17

18 U. Muteness and communication are 19 recurring themes. Helen suggests
20 that the creature, who does not yet
21 communicate with anyone at the 22 lab, may be “mute” and compares 23 the creature to a “mute” human 24 being.

25

26 V. The laboratory has a larger 27 tank/pool where the creature is 28 allowed to swim around, at the

Elisa is depicted as a conscientious hard worker, moving her equipment into place and getting down on her hands and knees to scrub gum off the floor.

In one of the laboratories that Elisa cleans, she finds that there is a fascinating aquatic creature (an amphibian man) held captive inside a closed and claustrophobic glass water tank.

Muteness and communication are recurring themes. Elisa is a mute human, who can only sign, and strongly identifies with the creature, who does not yet communicate with anyone at the lab.

The laboratory has a larger tank/pool where the creature is allowed to swim around, at the 1

2 3
4
5 6
7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21
22
23 24
25 26 27 28 scientists' discretion.

scientists' discretion.

W. The scientists are studying the creature's advanced abilities for potential military applications and advantages.

The scientists are studying the creature's advanced abilities for potential military applications and advantages.

X. The use of the creature for military purposes is presented as the sinister exploitation of an innocent being.

The use of the creature for military purposes is presented as the sinister exploitation of an innocent being.

Y. The lead doctor at the laboratory is described as a highly dedicated scientist.

The lead doctor at the laboratory is portrayed as a highly dedicated scientist.

Z. The laboratory is stocked with scientific tools and implements that are used for performing experiments on the creature.

The laboratory is stocked with scientific tools and implements that appear to be used for performing experiments on the creature.

AA. Electrodes attached to the creature's head are used to control and incite reactions from the creature.

Electrodes are used to control the creature: Strickland repeatedly uses an electric cattle prod to control and incite reactions from the creature.

1 BB. Crocus uses the electrodes on the Strickland uses the electric cattle 2 creature to stimulate and test the prod on the creature, while saying,
3 creature’s emotional response such “Is that you crying? Is that what it
4 as “pain,” “pleasure,” “fear” and is? . . . Or maybe you’re angry?”
5 “anger.”

6
7 CC. The scientists at the laboratory are A scientist at the laboratory is 8 particularly interested in learning particularly interested in learning 9 whether the creature can whether the creature can 10 communicate. As one character communicate. The scientist 11 emphasizes, “And if we can teach emphasizes, “This creature, I think 12 them our language, or learn theirs – it may be able to communicate. . .
13 we’ll be able to communicate.” with us.”

14
15 DD. Moray explains that if the Strickland explains about the 16 creature could communicate with creature, “You know the natives in 17 humans, it “would be worshipped in the amazon worshipped it as a 18 oceanography.” God.”

19
20 EE. A recurring motif is a romantic A recurring motif is a romantic 21 vintage song playing on a record vintage song playing on a record
22 player inside the laboratory where player inside the laboratory
23 the creature resides, facilitating the where the creature resides, 24 close emotional relationship facilitating the close emotional 25 between Helen and the creature. relationship between Elisa and the 26 creature.

27
28 FF. Despite being set in the 1960s, Despite being set in the 1960s, the

1 the Play prominently features
2 music popularized by Hollywood
3 musicals from the 1930s and
4 1940s.

Picture prominently features music popularized by Hollywood
musicals from the 1930s and 1940s.

5
6 GG. The romantic music played on 7 the record player is a key musical
8 cue to transition between scenes 9 and heighten the mood and 10 emotional resonance of the Play.

The romantic music played on the record player is a key musical cue to transition between scenes and heighten the mood and emotional resonance of the Picture.

11 12 HH. While the romantic song “Let 13 Me Call You Sweetheart” 14 (famously featured in a 1940s
15 musical film) plays on a record
16 player in the laboratory, Helen 17 bonds with the creature by 18 scrubbing the floor to the rhythm 19 of the music, singing along with 20 the record, and exchanging
21 playful glances with the creature,
22 who watches her intently from
23 inside the glass tank.

While the romantic song “I Know
Why (And So Do You)” (famously featured in a 1940s musical film) plays on a record player in the laboratory, Elisa bonds with the creature by dancing to the music while mopping the floor and exchanging playful glances with the creature,
who watches her intently from inside the glass tank.

24
25 II. Helen’s scrubbing to “Let Me
26 Call You Sweetheart” evokes a 27 famous Gene Kelly routine from 28 the 1943 film Thousands Cheer,

Elisa’s dancing with the mop parallels the same Gene Kelly routine from the 1943 film
Thousands Cheer, in which Kelly

1 in which Kelly dances to “Let Me dances to “Let Me Call You
2 Call You Sweetheart” with a Sweetheart” with a mop as his 3 mop as his partner. partner.

4
5 JJ. Helen secretly shares her lunch Elisa secretly shares her lunch
6 with the creature. She attempts to with the creature. She attempts to 7 gain the creature’s trust by giving it gain the creature’s trust by giving 8 sliced ham from her bag. it hardboiled eggs from her bag.

9
10 KK. The creature makes exotic The creature makes exotic aquatic 11 aquatic sounds in responding to sounds in responding to Elisa.
12 Helen.

13
14 LL. While they are alone, Helen While they are alone, Elisa 15 tenderly strokes the creature. tenderly strokes the creature.

16
17 MM. After spending time alone in the After spending time alone in the 18 laboratory trying to understand and laboratory trying to understand 19 communicate with the creature, and communicate with the 20 Helen forms a deep loving bond creature, Elisa forms a deep loving 21 with the creature. bond with the creature.

22
23 NN. Lab personnel are encouraged Lab personnel are encouraged to 24 to have a detached attitude to the have a detached attitude to the 25 animal specimens being studied. animal specimens being studied.
26 One character explains, “You One character explains, “This 27 will do best not to become fond thing dies, you learn, I leave,” 28 of the subject animals . . . it has admonishing another not to “fall

1 concerned me that you've in love with [your] playthings"
2 apparently grown . . . fond . . . of and "bottom line is this isn't a 3 the mammal." petting zoo."

4
5 OO. The creature "hate[s]" The creatures "hates mankind, but 6 mankind, except for Helen, for not" Elisa, for whom he ultimately 7 whom he ultimately professes professes his love.
8 his "love."

9
10 PP. At one point, Helen asks if a cat The cat of Elisa's neighbor is 11 was decapitated. decapitated.

12
13 QQ. Moray comments, "To look at Strickland comments, "They never 14 these mammals, you'd better learn their place. Rover, Lassie, 15 suspect they were such rapacious Spot. They're carnivores."
16 carnivores."

17
18 RR. Helen remarks that the pastry, A character's fingers are bitten off 19 "lady fingers", is a "strange," and lie on the floor; later after the 20 "almost macabre" term. fingers are reattached, but 21 decaying, the character rips them
22 off in a macabre fashion.

23
24 SS. Helen learns that the powers that Elisa learns that the powers that be 25 be at the laboratory have decided to at the laboratory have decided to 26 kill the creature because the kill the creature because the 27 creature refuses to cooperate and creature refuses to cooperate and 28 studying it has not yielded studying it has not yielded

1
2 3
4
5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21
22
23 24
25 26 27 28 satisfactory results.

satisfactory results.

TT. The lab personnel use a unique scientific term when describing how they are going to kill the creature: “vivisection.”

The lab personnel use a unique scientific term when describing how they are going to kill the creature: “vivisect.”

UU. Moray claims that vivisection will provide critical scientific knowledge.

Strickland claims that vivisection will provide critical scientific knowledge.

VV. Helen’s discovery that the lab will kill the creature provides a “ticking clock” literary device that drives the plot, wherein Helen must now find a way to rescue the creature before time runs out.

Elisa’s discovery that the lab will kill the creature provides a “ticking clock” literary device that drives the plot, wherein Elisa must now find a way to rescue the creature before time runs out.

WW. Helen defends the creature’s right to live by comparing him to a “mute” human being, insisting, “Some human beings are mute, you know. Just because they can’t talk we don’t kill them.”

Elisa defends the creature’s right to live by comparing him to herself, a mute human being, signing: “And what am I? I move my mouth – like him – and I make no sound – like him. What does that make me?”

XX. A concerned Helen tries to persuade her supervisors, pleading

A concerned scientist (Hoffstetler) tries to persuade his supervisors,

1 not to kill the creature.

pleading not to kill the creature.

2

3 YY. The creature stares at Helen,
4 silently imploring her for help.

The creature stares at Elisa silently imploring her for help with pained eyes.

5

6 ZZ. Helen decides that she will sneak
7 the creature out of the laboratory
8 and set it free at the dock on the 9 river that feeds "to the sea" (the 10 Atlantic Ocean).

Elisa decides that she will sneak
the creature out of the laboratory
and set it free at the dock on the canal that feeds "to the sea" (the Atlantic Ocean).

11

12 AAA. To spring the creature from the 13 lab, Helen plans to hide him in a 14 large rolling laundry cart.

To spring the creature from the lab,
Elisa plans to hide him in a large rolling laundry cart.

15

16 BBB. While Helen attempts her escape
17 plan, a character notices that Helen 18 has left her mop and coat but is 19 nowhere to be found, and becomes 20 concerned about what Helen is up 21 to.

While Elisa attempts her escape plan, a character notices that Elisa has not left for the day but is nowhere to be found, and becomes concerned about what Elisa is up to.

22

23 CCC. The scientist takes out and 24 slowly fills a hypodermic syringe,
25 preparing to kill the creature.

The scientist takes out and slowly fills a hypodermic syringe, preparing to kill the creature.

26

27 DDD. In a suspenseful and 28 dramatically resonant moment,

In a suspenseful and dramatically resonant moment, Elisa is seen

1 Helen is seen tenderly embracing 2 the creature as she lifts it out of the 3 tank to free it from captivity.

4 Helen's embrace of the creature is 5 behind a curtain pulled across the 6 tank like a shower curtain.

7
8 EEE. Although she was formerly
9 shy and compliant, Helen's
10 enlightening experience and
11 recognition by the creature
12 inspires her to defiantly stand
13 up to her hated superior who 14 wants to kill the creature.

15
16 FFF. There is a vivid underwater
17 fantasy sequence starring the 18 creature, which appears to be a 19 product of Helen's imagination.

20
21
22 GGG. Helen's and the creature's
23 relationship follows a specific
24 dramatic arc. After first being told 25 not to interact with the creature,
26 Helen dares to visit the creature,
27 bonding with it through 28 progressively more intimate tenderly embracing the creature as she lifts it out of the tank to free it from captivity. Later, Elisa embraces the creature behind a shower curtain.

Although she was formerly shy and compliant, Elisa's enlightening experience and recognition by the creature
inspires her to defiantly stand up to her hated superior who wants to kill the creature.

There is an underwater fantasy at the opening, and later a vivid fantasy sequence, starring the creature, which appear to be products of Elisa's imagination.

Elisa's and the creature's relationship follows a specific dramatic arc. After first being told not to interact with the creature, Elisa dares to visit the creature, bonding with it through progressively more intimate

1 connections: curiosity, playful connections: curiosity, playful
2 glances, food, music playing on the glances, food, music playing on 3 record player, then actual the record player, then actual 4 communication, tender touching, communication, tender touching,
5 and finally love and a resolution to and finally love and a resolution to 6 save the creature's life. save the creature's life.

7
8 HHH. Both Helen and the creature Both Elisa and the creature 9 transform as a result of their transform as a result of their 10 relationship, with the creature relationship, with the creature 11 becoming more humanlike, becoming more humanlike, 12 developing recognizable human developing recognizable human 13 emotions, and Helen becoming emotions, and Elisa becoming 14 truer to herself, expressing her truer to herself, expressing her 15 feelings without apology. feelings without apology.

16
17 III. The Play ends with the message The Play ends with the message 18 that love, empathy and compassion; that love, empathy and 19 even the unlikely love between a compassion, even the unlikely 20 lonely seemingly unremarkable love between a lonely seemingly 21 cleaning lady and an extraordinary, unremarkable cleaning lady and a 22 intelligent creature, triumphs over fantastic intelligent creature, 23 fear, violence and ordinary triumphs over fear, violence and 24 demonstrations of power. ordinary demonstrations of power.

25
26 44. Notably, ostensibly minor yet memorably unusual elements such as 27 the appearance of a record player in a science lab, the reference to a decapitated 28 cat, macabre severed fingers, Elisa dancing with a mop like Gene Kelley did to

1 the exact song featured in the Play, repeated use of the same terms of expression,
2 including the uncommon medical term “vivisection” are, cumulatively, strong 3 evidence that the Play exerted pervasive influence over the creation of the 4 clearly derivative Picture.

5 45. In addition, the Picture undeniably includes elements that appeared
6 onscreen in the NET Production of the Play, evidencing that one or more
7 Defendants (and/or their officers, agents, employees, licensees and assigns, 8 and/or persons acting in concert with them) had seen the NET Production and 9 incorporated elements of it in the Picture. In particular, Helen’s “coat”
10 referenced in the Play is shown in the NET Production as a green wool overcoat.
11 In the Picture, the coat of the parallel character Elisa is a green wool overcoat.
12 In the NET Production, when the song “Let Me Call You Sweetheart” plays on a 13 record player in the laboratory, Helen dances with a mop to amuse and flirt with 14 the creature. Matching the NET Production, the Picture stages a key scene in 15 which Elisa dances with a mop to amuse and flirt with the creature while a 16 romantic song from the same period plays on the record player in the laboratory.

17 46. Moreover, the design of the Picture’s creature, which was directed 18 by DEL TORO, was reportedly heavily influenced by dolphin anatomy and 19 behavior. The Picture’s visual effects supervisor who works under DEL TORO
20 has publicly stated that he relied on footage of a dolphin for the creature’s 21 movement. See Forbes, “Dennis Berardi Talks the VFX Behind The Shape Of 22 Water” (Dec. 18, 2017). In fact, the visual effects supervisor described the 23 creature in the Picture as “Michael Phelps mixed with a dolphin.” Id. (emphasis 24 added). Similarly, the supervising sound editor on the Picture publicly stated 25 that he “used those dolphin-like noises as initial inspiration” for the creature’s
26 vocalizations. See Vanity Fair, “Listen Carefully, and You’ll Find Guillermo 27 del Toro’s Shape of Water Cameo,” (Feb. 16, 2018) (emphasis added).

28 47. In addition, the creature from the Play and the creature from the

1 Picture exhibit numerous behavioral similarities. In the Picture, the creature is 2 highly intelligent and is shown learning to communicate with Elisa; dolphins,
3 similarly, are known for their highly developed intellect and their advanced 4 sonar powers and communicative capabilities, much of which we still do not 5 fully comprehend. Indeed, it is a short walk from the amazing dolphin in the 6 Play who learns to speak English and says “LOVE,” to the amphibian man-7 creature from the Picture, given that dolphins, despite their alien appearance, are 8 known to exhibit human behavioral, sexual and social conduct; mimic human 9 speech; and to form deep personal bonds with humans.

10 48. The early production design of the laboratory for the Picture also 11 tellingly points to the creators’ knowledge of the Play. An early illustration of 12 the laboratory, which has been publicly disclosed, clearly shows a semi-opaque 13 curtain strung on a curtain rod across the creature’s open tank, acting as a visual 14 barrier to anyone standing on the laboratory floor. See [https://www.
15 hollywoodreporter.com/news/how-guillermo-del-toros-black-lagoon-fantasy-16 inspired-shape-water-1053206](https://www.hollywoodreporter.com/news/how-guillermo-del-toros-black-lagoon-fantasy-inspired-shape-water-1053206). (The production design was described to The 17 Hollywood Reporter by the Picture’s production designer, whom Plaintiff is 18 informed and believes and on that basis alleges worked under DEL TORO’s 19 supervision.) The Play expressly uses a curtain in the same way: the curtain is 20 hung around the front of the creature’s tank in the laboratory, “shielding” the 21 creature from view whenever it is pulled across. Indeed, in the NET Production 22 of the Play, the curtain is a semi-opaque curtain strung on a rod across the 23 creature’s open tank, as depicted in the early production design for the Picture.
24 Although the creators of the Picture removed the curtain from the laboratory in 25 its final released version, the curtain’s early inclusion further indicates that the 26 Picture was directly derived from the Play.

27 49. Based on the above, it is inescapable that the Picture is an 28 unlicensed derivative work of the Play, and that Defendants have prepared,

1 produced, copied, distributed, exploited, and/or authorized others to prepare,
2 produce, copy, distribute, or exploit the Picture in violation of Plaintiff's 3 copyrights and rights under copyright in the Play. Plaintiff is informed and 4 believes and based thereon alleges that Defendants will continue to prepare,
5 produce, copy, distribute or exploit, and/or authorize others to copy, distribute or 6 exploit the infringing Picture and ancillary derivative works which copy and 7 exploit the Play in violation of the Copyright Act. Plaintiff is likewise informed 8 and believes and based thereon alleges that Defendants have prepared and will 9 distribute or exploit, and/or authorize others to prepare, produce, copy, distribute 10 or exploit the infringing Novelization and ancillary derivative works which copy 11 and exploit the Play in violation of the Copyright Act.

12 50. As a direct and proximate result of Defendants' actions Plaintiff
13 will suffer imminent and irreparable harm, much of which cannot be reasonably 14 or adequately measured or compensated in damages.

15 Public Reaction to the Picture

16 51. The Picture has received an outpouring of critical praise since its 17 December 2017 release, and has been nominated for awards by dozens of film 18 associations worldwide. The Picture received seven nominations for Golden 19 Globes Awards, including for Best Motion Picture (Drama) and Best 20 Screenplay, and received thirteen nominations for Academy Awards, including 21 for Best Picture and Best Original Screenplay. Indeed, to date the Picture has 22 received at least thirteen nominations from various film societies and 23 associations for the category of "Best Original Screenplay." It is evident that 24 much of the press's and industry's admiration for the Picture stems from the 25 perception that the Picture is an original work of art.

26 52. The Picture has also struck a chord with audiences. Based on 27 public reporting, Plaintiff is informed and believes and on that basis alleges that,
28 to date, the Picture has earned at least $50 million in domestic box office

1 receipts and an additional $24 million in foreign box office receipts.

2 53. However, members of the public who are familiar with the Play
3 have pointedly observed that the Picture appears to be an adaptation of Zindel's
4 work. Filmgoers have highlighted the substantial similarities between the Play
5 and the Picture through social media posts and online forums, including by way 6 of example, the following:

- 7 • At the film review website RogerEbert.com, Leo Doroschenko 8 commented, "Was the film influenced by Paul Zindel's short play LET 9 ME HEAR YOU WHISPER (it use to be frequently on PBS)?" The user 10 further posted: ". . . there is NO WAY someone involved in the story" of 11 the Picture "was unfamiliar with the play. There are way too many 12 similarities." Another RogerEbert.com user responded, "I remember 13 reading that in seventh grade; it definitely came to mind when I first read 14 the summary of the movie."
- 15 • Alfred Brock posted on Twitter: "The Shape of Plagiarism? 'Let Me Hear 16 You Whisper' . . . Like Apocalypse Now and Joseph Conrad's 'The Heart
17 of Darkness'
- 18 • Shanna Lodge posted on Twitter: "Quick Google search indicates that I 19 am not the only one to see the similarity between this film and the 20 @paulzindel play. #TheShapeofWater"
- 21 • Edward @ SavogoRoyal posted on Twitter: "Is it just me or does the Del
22 Toro 'The Shape of Water' trailer seem way to similar to the play 'Let Me 23 Hear You Whisper' by Paul Zindel?"
- 24 • Jonathan Yee posted on Twitter: "The new del toro movie reminds me of 25 Paul Zindel's 'Let Me Hear You Whisper' a one act play about a janitor 26 and an experimental dolphin"
- 27 • Danielle @daniellegee posted on Twitter: "Am I the only one who just 28 thought of 'Let Me Hear You Whisper' during 'The Shape of Water'?"

1 Surely it wasn't just me!"

- 2 • AScottFitz posted on Twitter: "Not sure I buy the 'he never saw it' line.
3 We watched Let Me Hear You Whisper in 8th grade English class in the 4 late '80s. The play was in our anthology book."
- 5 • Referring to whether the Picture copied the Play, Andrew Paul Wood 6 posted on Twitter: "it's one of my favourite plays and I can totally see 7 it[.]"
- 8 • John Podhoretz (the editor of Commentary magazine) posted on Twitter:
9 "whoa. Sounds like 'The Shape of Water' has a sourcing problem."
- 10 • In response to another's recommendation to "[s]ee" the Picture, 11 TheJediPorg posted on Twitter: "Or you could find a production of 'Let 12 me hear you whisper' to watch instead."
- 13 • Peter Bernhart commented on the CBC News YouTube channel: "Do the 14 film's credits acknowledge the television play from the 1960's, 'Let Me 15 Hear You Whisper,' which was broadcast on Public Television in at least 16 two versions?"
- 17 • At the RPG.net, a user commented, "Re: So, the trailer for Guillermo del 18 Toro's new movie is out ... It actually kinda feels like the weirdest 19 remake of Let Me Hear You Whisper possible."
- 20 • At the Turner Classic Movies website, a user commented, "The Shape of 21 Water looks like it was pretty much lifted from a play by Paul Zindel
22 called 'Let Me Hear You Whisper.' Zindels 1960s play is about a cleaner
23 in a research lab who forms an attachment to a dolphin that's being used 24 for research. Hmmmm."
- 25 • At the website SFcrownsnest.info, a user commented, "As soon as I saw 26 the creature slap the window of his container, I knew that the cleaning 27 lady was going to sneak him out in the laundry hamper. I had seen the 28 1969 airing of Let Me Hear You Whisper and even though I had not given

1 it a thought since I saw it (I was nine years old at the time), I recognized
2 that I was watching it again.”

- 3 • On Facebook, the community Trust Me, I’m a Nerd posted an embedded 4 trailer for the Picture and commented, “So it’s a movie version of Paul 5 Zindell’s [sic] ‘Let me hear you whisper’?”
- 6 • Zack Smith posted on Facebook: “So, THE SHAPE OF WATER’s plot is 7 a LOT like this play that was reprinted in several English class books
8 when I was growing up called LET ME HEAR YOU WHISPER . . .
9 There were two filmed versions on PBS and such”
- 10 • Barbara Kahn posted on Facebook: “I saw The Shape of Water.[]It 11 reminded me very much of the wonderful play by Paul Zindel called Let 12 Me Hear You Whisper, about a cleaning lady in a government lab where 13 they are trying to train a captive dolphin. There was also a TV version, 14 but it hasn’t been shown for years.”
- 15 • Dave Marshall posted on Facebook: “So The Shape of Water was not 16 inspired by the TV play Let Me Hear You Whisper? . . . Zindel wrote
17 young adult horror style fiction. 55 books. He won a Pulitzer Prize for a 18 script later directed by Paul Newman about Man in the Moon Marigolds 19 starring his wife. Daniel Kraus, very similarly, writes within the exact 20 same field of fiction but for a later generation. Kraus is of an age to have 21 been within Zindel’s target audience. Come on, ’fees [sic] up.”
- 22 • Marcallen Bell posted on Facebook: “The similarities are too close – the 23 only thing the movie had going for it was best original screen play – and 24 lookie-lookie – it’s exactly like another artist’s work[.]”
- 25 • David Hayward Bain posted on Facebook, in reference to a Guardian.com 26 article on the subject: “The source for the problem seems to be a Chicago 27 YA novelist, Daniel Kraus . . . If he forgot the source of inspiration he 28 certainly retained all the plot points.”

- 1 • On the webpage for the Picture on IMDB.com, IMDB has added the 2 comment: “Story bears a strong resemblance to Paul Zindel’s ‘Let Me
3 Hear You Whisper,’ which was a play and which aired on TV in May 4 1969. Story centers of [sic] a night cleaner in a research lab who forms a 5 strong bond with a dolphin held for research purposes. She learns to 6 communicate with it.”
- 7 • Joseph Dougherty posted on Facebook: “How can ‘Shape of Water’ be 8 nominated for Best Original Screenplay when its premise, plot, and 9 central character are ripped off from Paul Zindel’s 1969 play ‘Let Me
10 Hear You Whisper’?”

11 54. Plaintiff is informed and believes and based thereon alleges that 12 much of the popularity and acclaim that the Picture has attracted is due to the 13 original story, elements, characters, and themes authored by Zindel and 14 exploited in the Picture, as well as the widespread false perception that the 15 Picture is an original work. Plaintiff is therefore informed and believes and 16 based thereon alleges that Defendants’ infringement of the Play has generated 17 substantial profits for Defendants and has elevated the reputation and stature of 18 Defendants and their officers, agents, employees, licensees and assigns, and/or 19 persons acting in concert with them, involved in creating, financing, producing, 20 and/or distributing the infringing Picture.

21 FIRST CLAIM FOR RELIEF

22 (Copyright Infringement against all Defendants)

23 55. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference paragraphs 1
24 through 54 inclusive, as though fully set forth herein.

25 56. The Play is a wholly original work and copyrightable subject matter 26 under the laws of the United States.

27 57. The Play was produced and distributed in strict conformity with the 28 provisions of the Copyright Act and all other laws governing copyright.

1 58. The 1969 version of the Play containing minor abridgements was 2 registered with the United States Copyright Office. Plaintiff as Trustee for the 3 David Zindel Trust and the Lizabeth Zindel Trust duly filed an application with 4 the United States Copyright Office on February 16, 2018 to register the renewal 5 copyright to the 1969 version of the Play. See Exhibit B. Plaintiff as Trustee for 6 said testamentary trusts also duly filed an application with the United States
7 Copyright Office on February 16, 2018 to register the renewal copyright to the 8 unabridged Play. See Exhibit C.

9 59. By their exploitation and release of the Picture, a film indisputably 10 derived from the Play, Defendants and/or their officers, employees, and/or 11 agents knowingly and willfully infringed, and will continue to infringe, 12 Plaintiff's copyright and rights under copyright in the Play.

13 60. Each infringement by Defendants of the Play constitutes a separate 14 and distinct act of infringement.

15 61. Plaintiff has placed Defendants on notice of their infringement, yet
16 Defendants continue to infringe Plaintiff's rights under copyright, in willful 17 disregard of and indifference to Plaintiff's rights.

18 62. As a direct and proximate result of Defendants' copyright
19 infringement, Plaintiff has suffered and will continue to suffer severe injuries
20 and harm, much of which cannot be reasonably or adequately measured or 21 compensated in money damages if such wrongful conduct is allowed to continue
22 unabated. The ongoing harm this wrongful conduct will continue to cause
23 Plaintiff is both imminent and irreparable.

24 63. Pursuant to 17 U.S.C. § 502, Plaintiff is entitled to a preliminary 25 injunction, during the pendency of this action, and to a permanent injunction,
26 enjoining Defendants, their officers, agents and employees, and all persons 27 acting in concert with them, from engaging in such further violations of the 28 Copyright Act.

1 enjoining Defendants, their officers, agents and employees, and all persons
2 acting in concert with them, from engaging in such further violations of the
3 Copyright Act.

4 71. Plaintiff is further entitled to recover from Defendants the damages,
5 including pre-judgment interest Plaintiff sustained and will sustain, and any 6 income, gains, profits, and advantages obtained by Defendants as a result of 7 their wrongful acts alleged hereinabove, in an amount which cannot yet be fully 8 ascertained, but which shall be assessed at the time of trial.

9 72. Plaintiff is further entitled to attorney's fees and full costs pursuant
10 to 17 U.S.C. § 505.

11 THIRD CLAIM FOR RELIEF

12 (Vicarious Copyright Infringement against all Defendants)

13 73. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference paragraphs 1 14 through 72 inclusive, as though fully set forth herein.

15 74. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that 16 Defendants, and each of them, if not directly liable for infringement of 17 Plaintiff's copyright in the Play, are vicariously liable for said infringements.
18 Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that Defendants had the 19 right and ability to supervise the infringing conduct of others, including without 20 limitation the infringing conduct of co-Defendants, including Defendants DOES 21 1 through 10.

22 75. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that 23 Defendants possessed a direct financial interest in the infringing conduct of such 24 other parties.

25 76. Each infringement by Defendants and/or the DOE Defendants of 26 the Play constitutes a separate and distinct act of infringement.

27 77. As a direct and proximate result of Defendants' vicarious copyright
28 infringement, Plaintiff has suffered and will continue to suffer severe injuries

1 and harm, much of which cannot be reasonably or adequately measured or
2 compensated in money damages if such wrongful conduct is allowed to continue
3 unabated. The ongoing harm this wrongful conduct will continue to cause
4 Plaintiff is both imminent and irreparable.

5 78. Pursuant to 17 U.S.C. § 502, Plaintiff is entitled to a preliminary
6 injunction, during the pendency of this action, and to a permanent injunction,
7 enjoining Defendants, their officers, agents and employees, and all persons
8 acting in concert with them, from engaging in such further violations of the 9 Copyright Act.

10 79. Plaintiff is further entitled to recover from Defendants the damages, 11 including pre-judgment interest Plaintiff sustained and will sustain, and any 12 income, gains, profits, and advantages obtained by Defendants as a result of 13 their wrongful acts alleged hereinabove, in an amount which cannot yet be fully 14 ascertained, but which shall be assessed at the time of trial.

15 80. Plaintiff is further entitled to attorney's fees and full costs pursuant 16 to 17 U.S.C. § 505.

17 PRAYER FOR RELIEF

18 WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for judgment against the Defendants as 19 follows:

20 ON THE FIRST CLAIM FOR RELIEF

21 1. For an order preliminarily during the pendency of this action and 22 thereafter, permanently, (i) enjoining Defendants, their officers, agents,
23 employees, licensees and assigns, and all persons acting in concert with them,
24 from infringing the copyrights in the Play, in any manner, and (ii) enjoining
25 Defendants, their officers, agents, employees, licensees and assigns, and all
26 persons acting in concert with them, from engaging in or authorizing the 27 production, reproduction, distribution and/or exploitation of the infringing
28 Picture, the infringing Novelization, and ancillary products based thereon,

1 derived from the Play, without Plaintiff's express written license and consent.

2 2. For compensatory and consequential damages, according to proof
3 in an amount determined at trial, together with interest thereon as provided by 4 law;

5 3. For an accounting and restitution to Plaintiff of all gains, profits and 6 advantages Defendants have derived from their production, distribution and 7 exploitation of the infringing Picture, the infringing Novelization, ancillary 8 exploitations based thereon, and from their copyright infringement of the Play; 9 and

10 4. For such other and further relief and remedies available under the 11 Copyright Act, 17 U.S.C. §§ 101 et seq., which the Court may deem just and 12 proper.

13 ON THE SECOND CLAIM FOR RELIEF

14 5. For an order preliminarily during the pendency of this action and 15 thereafter, permanently, (i) enjoining Defendants, their officers, agents,
16 employees, licensees and assigns, and all persons acting in concert with them,
17 from infringing the copyrights in the Play, in any manner, and (ii) enjoining
18 Defendants, their officers, agents, employees, licensees and assigns, and all
19 persons acting in concert with them, from engaging in or authorizing the 20 production, reproduction, distribution and/or exploitation of the infringing
21 Picture, the infringing Novelization, and ancillary products based thereon,
22 derived from the Play, without Plaintiff's express written license and consent.

23 6. For an award of Defendants' profits and Plaintiff's compensatory 24 and consequential damages, according to proof in an amount determined at 25 trial, together with interest thereon as provided by law;

26 7. For an order requiring that Defendants provide a complete 27 accounting and for the restitution to Plaintiff of all monies, gains, profits and 28 advantages Defendants have derived from their production, distribution and

1 exploitation of the infringing Picture, the infringing Novelization, and ancillary
2 products based thereon, and from their copyright infringement of the Play;

3 8. For an order imposing a constructive trust over all monies, gains, 4 and profits Defendants derive from their production, distribution and
5 exploitation of the infringing Picture, the infringing Novelization, and ancillary
6 products based thereon, and from their copyright infringement of the Play; and

7 9. For such other and further relief and remedies available under the 8 Copyright Act, 17 U.S.C. §§ 101 et seq., which the Court may deem just and 9 proper.

10 ON THE THIRD CLAIM FOR RELIEF

11 10. For an order preliminarily during the pendency of this action and 12 thereafter, permanently, (i) enjoining Defendants, their officers, agents,
13 employees, licensees and assigns, and all persons acting in concert with them,
14 from infringing the copyrights in the Novel, in any manner, and (ii) enjoining
15 Defendants, their officers, agents, employees, licensees and assigns, and all
16 persons acting in concert with them, from engaging in or authorizing the 17 production, reproduction, distribution and/or exploitation of the infringing
18 Picture, the infringing Novelization, and ancillary products based thereon,
19 derived from the Play, without Plaintiff's express written license and consent.

20 11. For an award of Defendants' profits and Plaintiff's compensatory 21 and consequential damages, according to proof in an amount determined at 22 trial, together with interest thereon as provided by law;

23 12. For an order requiring that Defendants provide a complete
24 accounting and for the restitution to Plaintiff of all monies, gains, profits and 25 advantages Defendants have derived from their production, distribution and
26 exploitation of the infringing Picture, the infringing Novelization, and ancillary 27 exploitations based thereon, and from their copyright infringement of the 28 Novel;

