24 AND NOW comes Plaintiff, SWEET CICELY DANIHER, by and through her
25 undersigned counsel, Jared Weinstock, Esquire and the Law Office of J. Conor Corcoran, P.C.,
26 complaining of Defendants KORI RAE, PIXAR ANIMATION STUDIOS, PIXARD TALKING 27 PICTURES, and WALT DISNEY MOTION PICTURES GROUP (collectively, “Pixar”), and 28

1 respectfully requests this Honorable Court to enter judgment in her favor, and against 2 Defendants, and in support thereof alleges, upon information and belief, as follows:

3 Jurisdiction and Venue

4 1. The jurisdiction of this court is based upon 28 U.S.C. § 1400(a), in that Plaintiff is an
5 owner of a valid copyright which has been infringed upon by the unlawful acts of Defendants
6 herein, who reside and/or have regular and sustained contacts with, and are at all times relevant 7 herein conducting business in, the Northern District of California.

8 2. Jurisdiction over this cause of action is also proper before this Court pursuant to 28 U.S.C.
9 § 1331 as this copyright infringement civil action arises under the Constitution and/or laws of the 10 United States, and Title 17 of the United States Code in particular.

11 3. Venue is proper in this district pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1400 and/or 28 U.S.C. §1391(b)(2)
12 in that a substantial part of the events giving rise to Plaintiff's claim for copyright infringement
13 occurred in the Northern District of California and in that Defendants have been creating,
14 broadcasting, advertising, selling, distributing and/or are about to distribute for publication a 15 certain infringing motion picture, titled "Onward," in the San Francisco area, throughout the 16 United States, and abroad.

17 4. Venue is also proper in the Northern District of California pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §1391(c)
18 in that the Defendants reside and/or have substantial business contacts with the Northern District
19 of California as Defendants (or their agents) have been residing, creating, advertising, 20 distributing, and/or selling a certain infringing motion picture, titled "Onward," in the San 21 Francisco area, and throughout the United States and abroad.

22 Parties

23 5. Plaintiff Sweet Cicely Daniher is an adult individual and a locally based artist and 24 tattooist, and is a resident and citizen of the State of California, regularly conducting business at 25

1 Cyclops Tattoo, 513 Valencia Street, Suite 2, San Francisco, CA 94110, a tattoo shop in the 2 Mission District of San Francisco that has operated since 1998.

3 6. Defendant Kori Rae is an adult individual residing at 4478 Paradise Drive, Tiburon, CA
4 94920 and/or 825 Alvarado Street, San Francisco, CA 94114. Defendant Kori Rae has 5 unlawfully infringed Plaintiff's copyright in her creation, distribution, production, promotion,
6 screening, publication, execution of licensing deals for and/or pending sale of movie tickets for a 7 certain infringing motion picture, titled "Onward," as more fully set forth infra.

9 7. Defendant Pixar Animation Studios is a California corporation located at 1200 Park
10 Avenue, Emeryville, CA 94608, and is duly registered with the California Department of State as 11 currently conducting business at that address, and has unlawfully infringed Plaintiff's copyright in 12 its creation, distribution, production, promotion, screening, publication, execution of licensing 13 deals for and/or pending sale of movie tickets for a certain infringing motion picture, titled 14 "Onward," as more fully set forth infra.

16 8. Defendant Pixar Talking Pictures is a California corporation located at 1200 Park Avenue, 17 Emeryville, CA 94608, and is duly registered with the California Department of State as currently 18 conducting business at that address, and has unlawfully infringed Plaintiff's copyright in its 19 creation, distribution, production, promotion, screening, publication, execution of licensing deals
20 for and/or pending sale of movie tickets for a certain infringing motion picture, titled "Onward," 21 as more fully set forth infra.

23 9. Defendant Pixar Animation Studios and Defendant Pixar Talking Pictures shall 24 hereinafter be collectively referred to as "Defendant Pixar."

25 10. Defendant Walt Disney Motion Pictures Group, Inc. (hereinafter "Walt Disney") is a 26 California corporation located at 500 S. Buena Vista Street, Burbank, CA 91521, and is duly 27 registered with the California Department of State as currently conducting business at that 28

1 address, and has unlawfully infringed Plaintiff’s copyright in the creation, distribution,
2 production, promotion, screening, publication, execution of licensing deals for and/or pending
3 sale of movie tickets for a certain infringing motion picture, titled “Onward,” as more fully set 4 forth infra, and/or is about to do so, as the scheduled opening of the motion picture “Onward” is 5 currently slated for March 6, 2020.

8 Facts Underlying Infringement

9 11. The Plaintiff is an artist, photographer and tattooist in San Francisco, whose work is 10 regularly posted on her Instagram website (Instagram.com/sweettransam), the website for her 11 tattoo shop, Cyclops Tattoo (Cyclopstattoo.com), and two separate websites for a collection of 12 photographs, which the Plaintiff has taken, of random objects that look like unicorns 13 (iseeunicorns.blog, and instagram.com/sweetseesunicorns/).

14 12. Over the past eighteen (18) years, and as a matter of artistic interest in particular, the 15 Plaintiff has regularly taken pictures of everyday things that look like unicorns, which have been 16 a mythological subject matter of interest to the Plaintiff since the days of her youth.

18 13. For example, on or about February 21, 2014, the Plaintiff published a book of her 19 photographs, consisting of random objects that look like unicorns, which is called “I See 20 Unicorns,” and which is available for purchase online at the following web address of 21 www.blurb.com/b/5105762-i-see-unicorns.

22 14. At the risk of belaboring the point, the Plaintiff has had a real thing for unicorns, for a 23 very long time, and they have been a central theme and subject matter of her artistic work, 24 throughout the entirety of her career.

26 15. At any and all times relevant hereinafter, and since January 19, 2014, the Plaintiff has also 27 owned a tremendously cool, dark blue and/or purple 1972 Chevrolet G10 van, with red shag 28 carpeting, red velour walls and seating, and a white shag carpet roof, and which came into her

1 possession in or around January 19, 2014.

2 16. Since the time of its possession, the Plaintiff has joyously, proudly, and frequently posted
3 pictures of the van on her aforementioned Instagram account, a selection of which are attached
4 hereto and incorporated herein as Exhibit A.

5 17. As is evident from the first Instagram photo in Exhibit A, dated January 19, 2014, since 6 the time of the van's possession it was the publicly stated intention of the Plaintiff to paint a 7 unicorn mural on the side of the van, exclaiming as she did, "Unicorn mural on the way!!" See
8 Exhibit A, Instagram post of 1/19/2014.

9 18. The Plaintiff had an interest in painting a unicorn mural on the side of the van not only 10 because of her lifelong artistic interest in unicorns, but also because her ex-husband had 11 theretofore refused to allow her to do so.

12 19. Accordingly, the Plaintiff's exercise of adorning her van with a unicorn mural was not 13 only an effort at creating a public work of visual art, it was also a redemptive and validating act of 14 recovery from toxic masculinity and her former marriage, as many works of art by female artists 15 often are.

16 20. Therefore, subsequent to her possession of the van in January 2014, the Plaintiff designed 17 a unicorn mural for the side of her van, with tremendous specificity regarding the colors utilized
18 and the shading thereof, the flowing locks of hair from the unicorn, the flashes of lightning, and a 19 general outer space and mythological visual milieu.

20 21. In or around the week of Thanksgiving 2014, the Plaintiff applied her aforementioned 21 design for the unicorn mural to the side of her van. See Exhibit A, Instagram post of 11/29/2014.

22 22. And so, as set forth in the Instagram photo dated 11/29/2014 in Exhibit A (and in the 23 accompanying photographs dated 8/10/2015, 1/3/2017, and 4/8/2017), the Plaintiff brought forth
24 unto the world (or, at the very least, the streets of San Francisco) a mobile mural and/or a
26
27
28

1 superlative work of automotive art, with her very particular mural applied thereon, born of her
2 own creation and design, and which she thereafter christened as the “Vanicorn.”

3 23. Since its revelation to the public in November of 2014, the Vanicorn has been a very 4 popular piece of mobile, public art in San Francisco, and has enjoyed considerable press attention
5 from a number of news outlets, including but not limited to San Francisco Magazine, which 6 published a story on the Plaintiff and her van, complete with photographs detailing the 7 resplendent red interior, and the extraordinary exterior unicorn mural of the Vanicorn, in all its 8 glory, a true and correct copy of which is attached hereto and incorporated herein as Exhibit B.

10 24. The photograph and story concerning the Plaintiff, and her Vanicorn, was published by 11 San Francisco Magazine on or about July 5, 2017. See Exhibit B.

13 25. Subsequent to the publication of Exhibit B, on September 4, 2018, the Plaintiff was 14 contacted by Jane Clausen, an employee/agent/servant of Defendant Pixar, who inquired about 15 renting the Plaintiff’s Vanicorn for a social event taking place at Defendant Pixar’s facility, a true
16 and correct copy of which is attached hereto and incorporated herein as Exhibit C.

17 26. As set forth in Exhibit C, and on behalf of Defendant Pixar, Jane Clausen wrote:

18 “Sweet Cicely,

19 We just stumbled upon a badass photo of you and your amazing van in San 20 Francisco Mag and shrieked with joy...I’m working on an event over here at Pixar
21 Animation Studio next week, and was wondering if you’d be willing to rent us 22 your Vanicorn for a couple of days. I have no idea if you get inquiries like this ever, but it is incredibly perfect for the theme of the event we’re working with – kind of a fantasy/rocker sort of thing.

23 Would you let me know if you’re open to this? Of course, it would be in good 24 hands – we would make it worth your while, take exquisite care of it and provide alternate transportation for you.

25 Thank you so very much,
Jane

26 Production Office Manager
27 Pixar Animation Company.”

28 See Exhibit C.

1 27. In the subsequent correspondence that followed between Jane Clausen of Defendant Pixar,
2 and the Plaintiff, Ms. Clausen represented that the “event is a one day music festival/activity day
3 for Pixar employees and families. Your van would just be a show piece and not used in any 4 way other than a visual prop...Are you able to send me some additional photos of the van?
5 We’ve only seen the side, which just blew us away!” See Exhibit C (emphasis added).

7 28. As set forth in averments 26 and 27, and by Ms. Clausen’s own revelations therein,
8 Defendant Pixar was clearly impressed by the Plaintiff’s unicorn mural on the side of Plaintiff’s 9 Vanicorn.

10 29. As set forth in averments 26 and 27, and by Ms. Clausen’s own revelations therein,
11 Defendant Pixar was only going to be using the Vanicorn for an “event” that consisted of “a one 12 day music festival/activity day for Pixar employees and families” and that the Vanicorn would 13 only be used as a “show piece” and a “visual prop” for that one day social event. See Exhibit C.

15 30. Jane Clausen of Defendant Pixar offered to provide a contract to the Plaintiff for renting
16 the Vanicorn for the aforementioned “event” consisting of “a one day music festival/activity day 17 for Pixar employees and families” and eventually prepared and transmitted a contract to the 18 Plaintiff, which was signed by the Plaintiff and Defendant Pixar via James M. Kennedy, Senior 19 Vice President of Business Strategy and Chief Legal Counsel to Defendant Pixar, a true, correct
20 and redacted copy of which is attached hereto and incorporated herein as Exhibit D.

22 31. Exhibit D is dated September 10, 2018, and sets forth that Defendant Pixar (defined 23 therein as a Producer) would rent the Plaintiff’s Vanicorn at a confidential rate per day “for 24 Producer’s rental of the vehicle(s)...in connection with the Pixar event, to be held on September 25 14, 2018 (the ‘Production’).” See Exhibit D, ¶ preamble, p. 1.

27 32. The Plaintiff and Defendant Pixar agreed that the “event” would take place on September 28 14, 2018, that the Plaintiff would provide the Vanicorn for preparation ahead of time on or about

1 September 12, 2018, and that the Plaintiff would pick up the Vanicorn on or about September 15,
2 2018, for a total of 3.5 days, in exchange for a confidential sum of money. See Exhibits C and D;
3 see also Invoice submitted by the Plaintiff at the request of Defendant Pixar for that confidential
4 sum of money, a true, correct and redacted copy of which is attached hereto and incorporated
5 herein as Exhibit E.

7 33. To be clear, and as aforementioned in averment 27, Ms. Clausen represented to the 8 Plaintiff that the Vanicorn would be used for an event limited to “a one day music festival/activity
9 day for Pixar employees and families” and that the Vanicorn “would just be a show piece and not 10 used in any way other than a visual prop” (see Exhibit C) and upon that representation, the 11 Plaintiff and Defendant Pixar then signed a contract (Exhibit D), written by Defendant Pixar, 12 which explicitly limited the lease of the Vanicorn “for Producer’s rental of the vehicle(s)...in 13 connection with the Pixar event, to be held on September 14, 2018 (‘the Production’).

15 34. As set forth in Exhibit D, ¶ 5, entitled “RIGHTS,” Defendant Pixar specifically tailored its 16 limited rights in connection with its lease of the Vanicorn, limited as they were for “the 17 Production” of the aforementioned one day music festival/activity day for Pixar employees and 18 families only, and as further limited in the contract as “the Pixar event, to be held on September 19 14, 2018,” (and as aforementioned in averments 28 and 30 supra and defined in Exhibit D, ¶ 20 preamble), to wit:

22 “All rights of every kind in and to all of the results and proceeds (including, 23 without limitation, photography, filming and sound recordings) arising out of the 24 use of the Vehicle in connection with the Production shall be solely owned in 25 perpetuity, throughout the universe, by any means, devices, or methods, now
26 known and unknown and in any media, now known and unknown, by Producer 27 and its successors and assigns, and neither Lessor (the Plaintiff) or any of its 28 employees, agents or affiliates or other party now or hereafter having an interest in said Vehicle shall have any right of action, including without limitation any right to injunctive relief against Producer, its successors, assigns and/or any other party arising out of any use or non-use of said photography, filming and/or sound recordings. Neither Producer, nor its successors, assignees or licensees shall be obligated to make any actual use of any photography, recordings, depictions or any

1 other results or proceeds from use of the Vehicle in any motion picture or 2 otherwise.”

3 See Exhibit D, ¶ 5, entitled “RIGHTS” (emphasis added).

4 35. The point cannot be emphasized enough: at every stage of Defendant Pixar’s interactions
5 with the Plaintiff, including but not limited to the contract attached hereto as Exhibit D, “the 6 Production” was defined as Defendant Pixar’s limited use of the Vanicorn (and any and all
7 photography, video and sound recording, etc., on the day thereof) for the Pixar one day music
8 festival and activity day for Pixar employees on September 14, 2018. See Exhibit D, ¶ preamble;
9 see also Exhibit C.

10 36. Therefore, in September 2018, the Plaintiff produced the Vanicorn as required pursuant to 11 the provisions of Exhibit D, Defendant Pixar paid the Plaintiff a confidential sum of money for so 12 doing, the Plaintiff’s Vanicorn was photographed and/or filmed countless times on the day of the 13 Pixar event on September 14, 2018 by Pixar employees and their friends and family members, 14 and upon information and belief, a good time was had by all – until in or around May 31, 2019.

15 37. In or around May 31, 2019, the Plaintiff discovered that Defendant Pixar was producing a 16 3D computer animated motion picture, entitled “Onward,” produced by Defendant Kori Rae, 17 distributed by Defendant Walt Disney, and featuring the voices of noted actors such as Tom 18 Holland, Chris Pratt, Julia Louis-Dreyfus, and Octavia Spencer (hereinafter “Onward”).

19 38. In or around May 31, 2019, the Plaintiff discovered that Onward is about two blue elves, 20 named Ian and Barley Lightfoot, who are searching for a magical way to reunite themselves with 21 their dead father.

23 39. In or around May 31, 2019, the Plaintiff discovered that in pursuit of their goal, Ian and 24 Barley Lightfoot use the services of a third character in the film named Guinevere, which is a
25 tremendously cool, dark blue and/or purple 1972 Chevrolet G10 van with a red interior, and a big 26 mural of a unicorn on its side, and that is clearly a direct copy and/or visual duplication and/or 27
28

1 doppelgänger of the Plaintiff's Vanicorn, down to the very same year, make and model. See
2 Defendants' promotional advertisement for Onward, a true and correct copy of which is attached
3 hereto and incorporated herein as Exhibit F.

4 40. As set forth in a pictorial comparison created by the Plaintiff and published on her
5 Instagram account on or about May 31, 2019, the van named Guinevere in the Defendants'
6 motion picture Onward is a direct copy and/or visual duplication and/or doppelgänger of the 7 Plaintiff's Vanicorn, down to the very same year, make, model, exterior color scheme, interior
8 color scheme, and the exterior mural of a unicorn. A true and correct copy of the Plaintiff's 9 pictorial comparison of her Vanicorn and Guinevere is attached hereto and incorporated herein as 10 Exhibit G.

12 41. The Defendants created the character of Guinevere and/or made that character look like
13 the Plaintiff's Vanicorn, and clearly had the ability to do so and/or access to Plaintiff's Vanicorn
14 to subsequently render such a pilfered and unlawful duplication, by virtue of Defendant Pixar's
15 prior rental of the Vanicorn from the Plaintiff, as aforementioned, in September 2018.

17 42. Unfortunately, the Defendants' pilfered and unlawful duplication of the Plaintiff's
18 Vanicorn, in the Defendants' visual representation of the Guinevere van character in Onward, 19 violates the Plaintiff's copyright in the Vanicorn.

21 43. Prior to May 31, 2019, no Defendant had ever contacted the Plaintiff at any time
22 concerning the use of her Vanicorn for the visual representation of the Guinevere van character in 23 the motion picture Onward.

24 44. As aforementioned, on May 31, 2019, the Plaintiff demonstrated the Defendants' unlawful 25 duplication of her Vanicorn as the Guinevere van character, as set forth in Exhibit G.

26 45. Three days later, on Monday June 3, 2019, at 5:06 p.m., Defendant Kori Rae telephoned 27 the Plaintiff.
28

1 46. During the course of that telephone call, Defendant Kori Rae introduced herself to the 2 Plaintiff as the producer of Onward, and apologized to the Plaintiff for the theft of the Vanicorn
3 for its use as the Guinevere character.

4 47. During the course of that telephone call, Defendant Kori Rae also admitted to the Plaintiff
5 that the Defendants intentionally did not inform her, in neither the prelude to the execution of the 6 contract in Exhibit D nor in the contract itself, that they, in fact, intended to use the Vanicorn as 7 the Guinevere character in Onward, because at that time, the movie had no title, and the 8 Defendants believed they couldn't have the Plaintiff sign a non-disclosure agreement without a
9 title, and so the Defendants simply did not reveal their intentions with regard to the Plaintiff's
10 Vanicorn in either their preliminary discussions, nor in Exhibit D itself, and instead, they simply 11 had the Plaintiff sign Exhibit D, a mere rental agreement for the van to be used for a one day
12 music festival and activity day, for Pixar employees, at Pixar's location, on September 14, 2018.

13 48. Unfortunately for the Defendants, the contract they themselves created in Exhibit D 14 explicitly prohibits the use of any photographs and/or video and/or other visual representations of 15 the Plaintiff's Vanicorn, taken on the day of September 14, 2018, for any purpose other than that 16 one day event itself. See Exhibit D, ¶ 5, entitled "RIGHTS."

17 49. Plaintiff's Vanicorn was subsequently registered with the Copyright Office, with an 18 effective copyright registration date of December 13, 2019 and a registration number of VA 2-19 183-283. See Copyright Registration, a true and correct copy of which is attached hereto and 20 incorporated herein as Exhibit H.

21 50. Neither Onward itself as a motion picture, nor any of the Defendants' advertisements or 22 promotional materials therefor (including but not limited to the Defendants' production, 23 marketing and sale of Onward merchandise and/or toy vans for children and/or an exact life-sized
24 reproduction of the Vanicorn by Pixar's resident car expert, Jay Ward, for use at the 2019 D23
25
26
27
28

1 Expo, all of which are attached hereto and incorporated herein as Exhibit I), contained any
2 copyright management information (C.M.I.) for the Plaintiff's Vanicorn and, in fact, specifically
3 excluded and otherwise omitted such C.M.I. despite clearly using a pilfered Vanicorn therein.

4 51. The Plaintiff's Vanicorn was willfully, intentionally, knowingly and undeniably stolen by 5 Defendants, who then continued to pursue the advertising and/or publication and/or distribution
6 of their infringing motion picture, Onward, and/or its concomitant merchandising as in Exhibit I,
7 without any proper attribution or C.M.I., even after Defendant Kori Rae explicitly apologized to 8 the Plaintiff for the infringement.

9 52. As aforementioned, Defendants have intentionally and unlawfully used and reproduced
10 the Plaintiff's Vanicorn, and/or are about to do so, infringing upon the Plaintiff's copyright 11 therein and they are inuring (and/or are about to inure) considerable profits from the same.

12 53. In so doing, said Defendants have and/or will be using their infringing motion picture
13 and/or advertisements and promotional and merchandising materials therefor, adding to the public
14 popularity of their own products, and thereby infringing upon Plaintiff's copyright therein and 15 inuring considerable profits from the same.

16 54. Upon information and belief, one and/or all of the Defendant(s) own multiple copyrights
17 to the motion picture Onward and/or the advertising and promotion material therefor, containing 18 depictions of the Plaintiff's Vanicorn as Guinevere.

19 55. Upon information and belief, no copyright registration submitted by any of the Defendants
20 to the Registrar of Copyrights mentions any derivation in Plaintiff's Vanicorn, as aforementioned.

21 56. The Plaintiff did not give her consent, permission or license, in any way, to any Defendant
22 to reproduce her copyrighted Vanicorn, in any fashion, for any use in any of the Defendants'
23 advertisements, promotion materials, or the motion picture entitled Onward. Defendants 24 reproduced Plaintiff's copyrighted Vanicorn anyway, in violation of 17 U.S.C. § 106(1).
25
26
27
28

1 57. Plaintiff did not give her consent, permission or license, in any way, to any Defendant to
2 specifically include Plaintiff's copyrighted Vanicorn as a derivative work contained in the 3 Defendants' advertisements, promotion materials, or the motion picture entitled Onward.
4 Defendants prepared and published derivative works, based upon Plaintiff's copyrighted
5 Vanicorn anyway, in violation of 17 U.S.C. § 106(2).

7 58. Plaintiff did not give her consent, permission or license, in any way, to any Defendant to 8 specifically engage in the public distribution of Plaintiff's copyrighted Vanicorn contained in 9 Defendants' advertisements, promotion materials, or the motion picture entitled Onward, as 10 previously identified, supra, or in those remaining to be discovered. Through the creation,
11 publication, distribution, unlawful registration of copyright and/or sale of such infringing
12 publications and/or motion picture, the Defendants publicly distributed Plaintiff's copyrighted
13 Vanicorn anyway, in violation of 17 U.S.C. § 106(3).

15 59. Plaintiff did not give her consent, permission or license in any way to any Defendant to 16 specifically include Plaintiff's copyrighted Vanicorn in any public display (such as the 17 publication, distribution and/or sale of the Defendants' advertisements, promotion and/or 18 merchandising materials and products, or the motion picture entitled Onward, as aforementioned).
19 The Defendants performed and/or displayed Plaintiff's copyrighted Vanicorn anyway, in 20 violation of 17 U.S.C. § 106(4) and/or § 106(5).

22 60. No Defendant has compensated the Plaintiff in any fashion whatsoever for the use of her
23 copyrighted Vanicorn in the creation, publication, distribution, unlawful registration of copyright
24 and/or sale of the infringing Defendants' advertisements, promotion and/or merchandising
25 materials and products, or the motion picture entitled Onward and/or use of the Plaintiff's
26 Vanicorn therein.

27 61. Upon information and belief, the Defendants' infringing behavior, as aforementioned, has 28

1 produced and/or will produce great profits for the Defendants. None of these profits have been
2 shared, or will be willing shared, with the Plaintiff.

3 62. The Defendants knowingly and willfully, directly and/or derivatively, copied without 4 independent creation, the Plaintiff's copyrighted Vanicorn for the specific purpose of infringing
5 upon the Plaintiff's copyright and to unlawfully enrich the Defendants at Plaintiff's expense, as 6 the Defendants never obtained a license from the Plaintiff, let alone her consent or permission, for 7 the specific use of his copyrighted Vanicorn in the infringing Defendant's advertisements,
8 promotion and/or merchandising materials and products, or the motion picture entitled Onward,
9 as aforementioned.

11 63. To be absolutely clear, the Plaintiff is not claiming that she possesses a general copyright 12 prohibiting, or in any way forbidding, the rightful ability of any person (or any company, for that 13 matter) to paint a unicorn on the sign of their van.

15 64. However, as aforementioned in averments 1 through 63, and by virtue of a comparison of 16 Exhibit F with Exhibit G, Defendants have unquestionably used the Plaintiff's copyrighted
17 Vanicorn to be the Guinevere character in Onward.

18 65. Upon information and belief, Onward is scheduled to be released to the general public on 19 or about March 6, 2020 by Defendant Walt Disney.

21 66. The Plaintiff's copyrighted Vanicorn is a "work of visual art" as defined in 17 U.S.C. §
22 101, and is accordingly entitled to any and all protections and/or causes of action and/or damages
23 set forth and applicable under Title 17.

25 PLAINTIFF v. DEFENDANTS
26 COUNT I
27 COPYRIGHT INFRINGEMENT – 17 U.S.C. § 501 et. seq.
28 Request for Damages pursuant to 17 U.S.C. §§503 through 505

67. Averments 1 through 66 are incorporated as though fully set forth herein at

1 length.

2 68. The Defendants' advertisements, promotion and/or merchandising materials and/or 3 products, and/or the motion picture entitled Onward flagrantly infringe upon the Plaintiff's
4 copyrighted Vanicorn, as aforementioned, and therefore each constitute separate, individual 5 instances of copyright infringement.

7 69. Upon information and belief, the Defendants falsely copyrighted the Defendants'
8 advertisements, promotion and/or merchandising materials and products, and/or the motion
9 picture entitled Onward as original works, with no credit given for the derivative Vanicorn
10 belonging to the Plaintiff which is included therein.

11 70. At no time did any Defendant have a license or authority of any kind to specifically use 12 the Plaintiff's copyrighted Vanicorn in any Defendant's advertisements, promotion and/or 13 merchandising materials and products, or the motion picture entitled Onward.
14

15 71. The express use and inclusion of the Plaintiff's copyrighted Vanicorn in any Defendant's
16 advertisements, promotion and/or merchandising materials and products, or the motion picture
17 entitled Onward, as aforementioned, is evidence of said Defendant's direct access to the same, 18 especially given Defendant Pixar's prior limited purpose rental of the Vanicorn as 19 aforementioned and set forth in Exhibit D; furthermore, the literal reproduction of the Plaintiff's
20 Vanicorn in the aftermath of said limited rental raises a clear inference of such access.
21

22 72. Each Defendant has willfully infringed on the copyright owned by the Plaintiff, which 23 was properly registered with the Copyright Office. See Exhibit H.

24 73. Based on the foregoing, and pursuant to 17 U.S.C. § 504, the Plaintiff is entitled to have 25 each Defendant disgorge all profits earned (directly or indirectly) as a result of each Defendant's 26 copyright infringement.
27

28 74. In the alternative to payment of the Defendants' profits, pursuant to 17 U.S.C. § 504,

1 Plaintiff is entitled to One Hundred Fifty Thousand ($150,000) Dollars per willful infringement
2 after the date of registration of the official copyright at Registration No. VA 2-183-293, dated 3 December 13, 2019).

4 75. In addition, pursuant to 17 U.S.C. § 503, Plaintiff respectfully requests this Honorable
5 Court to order the impounding of all copies of any Defendant’s advertisements, promotion and/or 6 merchandising materials and products, and/or the motion picture entitled Onward, and to order
7 the Defendants to cease and desist from further distributing the infringing advertisements,
8 promotion and/or merchandising materials and products, and/or the motion picture entitled
9 Onward, in any fashion and to any commercial retailer or distributor of film or in any public 10 and/or private movie theatre and/or via publicly available cable television services and/or any 11 online streaming service (including but not limited to Apple TV, Netflix and/or Disney +), as the 12 same is in violation of the Plaintiff’s copyright.
13

15 76. In addition, pursuant to 17 U.S.C. § 505, Plaintiff respectfully requests this Honorable
16 Court to order the Defendants to pay all costs incurred by the Plaintiff in the prosecution of this 17 civil action, including, but not limited to, expert witness fees, costs, and attorney’s fees.
18

19 PLAINTIFF v. DEFENDANTS
20 COUNT II
21 COPYRIGHT INFRINGEMENT – 17 U.S.C. § 501 et. seq.
22 Request for Injunctive Relief pursuant to
23 17 U.S.C. §§502

24 77. Averments 1 through 76 are incorporated as though fully set forth herein at 25 length.

26 78. The Defendants have willfully infringed on the copyright owned by Plaintiff, which was 27 properly registered with the Copyright Office. See Exhibit H.

28 79. The Defendants’ infringement, use, sale and/or pirating of the Plaintiff’s copyrighted
Vanicorn has caused permanent and irreparable harm to Plaintiff.

1 80. Unless an injunction is granted barring the Defendants from further distributing,
2 marketing, selling, publishing, or otherwise promoting their infringing advertisements, promotion
3 and/or merchandising materials and products, and/or the motion picture entitled Onward, the 4 Plaintiff will continue to suffer ongoing irreparable harm.

5 81. The Plaintiff does not have an adequate remedy at law.

6 82. Based upon the clear and willful violations in this case, and the unlawful inclusion of 7 Plaintiff's Vanicorn in the Defendants' advertisements, promotion and/or merchandising
8 materials and products, and/or the motion picture entitled Onward, the Plaintiff has a substantial 9 likelihood of success on the merits.
10

11 83. Greater harm will befall the Plaintiff than the Defendants if the injunctive relief herein is 12 not granted.

13 84. Pursuant to 17 U.S.C. § 502, Plaintiff respectfully requests this Honorable Court to grant a 14 temporary and/or final injunction on such terms as this Court deems reasonable to prevent and 15 restrain the infringement of Plaintiff's copyright.
16

18 PLAINTIFF v. DEFENDANTS
19 COUNT III
20 Request for Declaratory Relief pursuant to
21 28 U.S.C. §2201

22 85. Averments 1 through 84 are hereby incorporated as though fully set forth herein
23 at length.

24 86. Upon information and belief, the Defendants falsely filed for copyright protection on the 25 Defendants' advertisements, promotion and/or merchandising materials and products, and/or the 26 motion picture entitled Onward, for in preparing and recording said filings, Defendants did not 27 identify the Defendants' publications as being derivative of Plaintiff's copyrighted Vanicorn.

28 87. The Defendants falsely filed for copyright protection on the Defendants' advertisements,

1 promotion and/or merchandising materials and products, and/or the motion picture entitled
2 Onward knowing that Plaintiff’s Vanicorn enjoys copyright protection. This raises a legal dispute
3 that can properly be decided by a request for a declaratory judgment that the Defendants’
4 copyrights in the Defendants’ advertisements, promotion and/or merchandising materials and 5 products, and/or the motion picture entitled Onward are invalid.

7 88. The Defendants’ copyrights in the Defendants’ advertisements, promotion and/or 8 merchandising materials and products, and/or the motion picture entitled Onward should be 9 invalidated based upon the Defendants’ use of Plaintiff’s original Vanicorn for unlawful inclusion 10 therein.

12 PLAINTIFF v. DEFENDANTS
13 COUNT IV
14 Violation of the Digital Millenium Copyright Act
15 17 U.S.C. § 1202 et. seq.

16
17 89. Averments 1 through 88 are hereby incorporated as though fully set forth herein
18 at length.

19 90. As aforementioned, the Defendants used the Plaintiff’s Vanicorn, and then unlawfully 20 used the Vanicorn for commercial advantage as demonstrated in Exhibits F, G and I and the 21 Defendants’ Onward movie itself, thereby infringing Plaintiff’s copyright therein, in violation of 22 Exhibit H, on multiple occasions, constituting separate, individual infringements.

23 91. In so doing, the Defendants excised the Plaintiff’s C.M.I. from the Plaintiff’s Vanicorn,
24 presenting Guinevere instead as the product of and/or intellectual property of the Defendants 25 themselves. Compare Exhibits A, F, G, and I.

26 First violation under § 1202(a)

27 92. § 1202(a) proscribes that “No person shall knowingly and with the intent to induce, 28 enable, facilitate, or conceal infringement (1) provide copyright management information that is

1 false, or (2) distribute or import for distribution copyright management information that is false.

2 93. Defendants' actions and/or inactions, as aforementioned in averments 1 through 92, are in 3 violation of § 1202(a), including but not limited to any Defendant's filings with the Copyright
4 Office and/or the distribution, publication, licensing and/or movie theatre showings of the 5 aforementioned motion picture entitled Onward, and/or accompanying merchandise, as they 6 contain copyright management information that excludes the Plaintiff.

8 94. Plaintiff's C.M.I. was intentionally excluded by the Defendants from (including but not 9 limited to) any Defendant's filings with the Copyright Office and/or the distribution, publication,
10 licensing and/or movie theatre showings of the aforementioned motion picture entitled Onward,
11 and/or accompanying merchandise, and the Defendants intentionally published advertisements,
12 promotion and/or merchandising materials and products, and/or the motion picture entitled
13 Onward with the Vanicorn contained therein, knowing (or having reasonable grounds to know)
14 that such exclusion of Plaintiff's C.M.I. would induce, enable, facilitate or otherwise conceal the 15 Defendants' blatant copyright infringement by conveying the false message that the Defendants'
16 works, and the use of the Vanicorn as Guinevere, were of the Defendants' own creation, when in 17 fact they were pilfered from the Plaintiff's copyrighted Vanicorn.
18

19 95. The Defendants' distribution of false copyright management information was, upon 20 information and belief, also individually and separately committed, each with different methods
21 of publication, to each of the Defendants' customers, as aforementioned.
22

23 96. Because of the Defendants' violation of 17 U.S.C. § 1202, and pursuant to 17 U.S.C.
24 §1203(c)(3), Plaintiff respectfully requests statutory damages in the amount of $25,000 for each 25 violation.
26

27 97. Because of the Defendants' violation of 17 U.S.C. § 1202, and pursuant to 17 U.S.C.
28 §1203(b), Plaintiff respectfully requests reasonable attorney's fees and costs.

1 98. Maximum statutory damages and attorney’s fees are particularly appropriate in light of the 2 Defendants’ theft of Plaintiff’s Vanicorn, the infringement of her copyright, and the obvious
3 exclusion of her copyright management information in the Defendants’ unlawful reproductions
4 and misappropriations of Plaintiff’s Vanicorn, which falsely convey that the Vanicorn as 5 Guinevere contained in the Defendants’ advertisements, promotion and/or merchandising
6 materials and products, and/or the motion picture entitled Onward are of the Defendants’ own 7 creation.

10 PLAINTIFF v. DEFENDANTS
11 COUNT V
12 Violation of the Visual Artists Rights Act
13 17 U.S.C. § 106 et. seq.

14 99. Averments 1 through 98 are hereby incorporated as though fully set forth herein
15 at length.

16 100. § 106(a) proscribes that the Plaintiff, as an “author of a work of visual art (1) shall have 17 the right (A) to claim authorship of that work, and...(3) subject to the limitations set forth in 18 section 113(d), shall have the right (A) to prevent any intentional distortion, mutilation, or other 19 modification of that work which would be prejudicial to his or her honor or reputation, and any 20 intentional distortion, mutilation, or modification of that work is a violation of that right, and (B)
21 to prevent any destruction of a work of recognized stature, and any intentional or grossly 22 negligent destruction of that work is a violation of that right.”

23 101. Pursuant to § 106(a), the Plaintiff has the right as an “author of a work of visual art” to 24 claim authorship of the Vanicorn as Guinevere contained in the Defendants’ advertisements, 25 promotion and/or merchandising materials and products, and/or the motion picture entitled 26 Onward.

27 102. Pursuant to § 106(a), the Plaintiff has the right to prevent the intentional distortion, 28

1 mutilation, or other modification of the Vanicorn, by any Defendant herein, that would be 2 prejudicial to her honor or reputation, and the Defendants' advertisements, promotion and/or 3 merchandising materials and products, and/or the motion picture entitled Onward are a violation 4 of that right.

6 103. The Defendants' use of the Vanicorn as Guinevere is a distortion and/or mutilation and/or 7 modification of the Plaintiff's Vanicorn, because the Defendants' use of the Vanicorn as 8 Guinevere denigrates this Plaintiff's highly personal and public transubstantiation of her lifelong 9 artistic interest in unicorns into the Vanicorn (a uniquely San Franciscan work of public, mobile,
10 automotive art, and a redemptive and validating act of recovery from toxic masculinity and a 11 former marriage) and which has, instead, been pilfered by the Defendants as a commercial and
12 corporate conduit for the aspirations of a pair of blue boy elves looking for their father in a mass
13 marketed Disney film, and was accomplished by the Defendants under wickedly misleading
14 pretenses, as confessed by Defendant Kori Rae, as aforementioned.

16 104. The Defendants' distortion and/or mutilation and/or modification of the Vanicorn as 17 Guinevere is prejudicial to the Plaintiff's honor and/or reputation, which have been forged by 18 virtue of her lifelong work as an artist whose creative and artistic productivity is anything but 19 commercial, corporate, compromised by toxic masculinity, and/or otherwise pilfered (in 20 substance, character, or quality), unlike the work of the Defendants herein, which denigrates this 21 Plaintiff's highly personal and public transubstantiation of her lifelong artistic interest in unicorns
22 into the Vanicorn (a uniquely San Franciscan work of public, mobile, automotive art, and a 23 redemptive and validating act of recovery from toxic masculinity and a former marriage) and 24 which Defendants have, instead, pilfered as a commercial and corporate conduit for the 25 aspirations of a pair of blue boy elves looking for their father in a mass marketed Disney film, and 26 was accomplished by the Defendants under wickedly misleading pretenses, as confessed by 27
28

1 Defendant Kori Rae, as aforementioned.

2 105. Pursuant to § 106(a), the Plaintiff has the right to prevent any destruction of a work of 3 recognized stature, such as the Vanicorn, and the Defendants’ advertisements, promotion and/or 4 merchandising materials and products, and/or the motion picture entitled Onward (constituting as 5 they do an intentional and/or grossly negligent destruction of the Vanicorn) is a violation of that 6 right.

8 106. The Defendants’ use of the Vanicorn as Guinevere is an intentional and/or grossly
9 negligent destruction of the Vanicorn, because the Defendant’s use of the Vanicorn as Guinevere
10 denigrates this Plaintiff’s highly personal and public transubstantiation of her lifelong artistic 11 interest in unicorns into the Vanicorn (a uniquely San Franciscan work of public, mobile,
12 automotive art, and a redemptive and validating act of recovery from toxic masculinity and a
13 former marriage) and which has, instead, been pilfered by the Defendants as a commercial and
14 corporate conduit for the aspirations of a pair of blue boy elves looking for their father in a mass
15 marketed Disney film, and was accomplished by the Defendants under wickedly misleading
16 pretenses, as confessed by Defendant Kori Rae, as aforementioned.
17

19 PLAINTIFF v. DEFENDANTS
20 COUNT VI
21 Violation of the California Artists Protection Act
22 Cal. Civ. Code § 987

23 107. Averments 1 through 106 are hereby incorporated as though fully set forth herein
24 at length.

25 108. § 987 of the California Civil Code proscribes that “the physical alteration or destruction of 26 fine art, which is an expression of the artist’s personality, is detrimental to the artist’s reputation, 27 and artists therefore have an interest in protecting their works of fine art against any alteration or 28 destruction; and that there is also a public interest in preserving the integrity of cultural and

1 artistic creations.”

2 109. The Plaintiff is an artist as defined by § 987.

3 110. The Plaintiff’s Vanicorn is fine art as defined by § 987.

4 111. § 987(c)(1) further proscribes that “No person, except an artist who owns and possesses a 5 work of fine art which the artist has created, shall intentionally commit, or authorize the 6 intentional commission of, any physical defacement, mutilation, alteration or destruction of a 7 work of fine art.”

9 112. Defendants’ actions and/or inactions, as aforementioned in averments 1 through 111, are 10 detrimental to the Plaintiff’s reputation, and constitute a violation and/or multiple violations of § 11 987(c)(1), as they have altered this Plaintiff’s highly personal and public transubstantiation of her 12 personality and her lifelong artistic interest in unicorns into the Vanicorn (a uniquely San 13 Franciscan work of public, mobile, automotive art, and a redemptive and validating act of 14 recovery from toxic masculinity and a former marriage) and which has, instead, been pilfered by 15 the Defendants as a commercial and corporate conduit for the aspirations of a pair of blue boy
16 elves looking for their father in a mass marketed Disney film, and was accomplished by the 17 Defendants under wickedly misleading pretenses, as confessed by Defendant Kori Rae, as 18 aforementioned.

19
20 113. § 987(c)(2) further proscribes that “no person who frames...a work of fine art shall 21 commit, or authorize the commission of, any physical defacement, mutilation, alteration or 22 destruction of a work of fine art by any act constituting gross negligence. For purposes of this 23 section, the term “gross negligence” shall mean the exercise of so slight a degree of care as to 24 justify the belief that there was an indifference to the particular work of fine art.”

26 114. Defendants’ actions and/or inactions, as aforementioned in averments 1 through 113,
27 constitute a violation and/or multiple violations of § 987(c)(2), because the Defendants’ framing
28

1 of the Vanicorn as Guinevere, within the four corners of a motion picture and/or its concomitant
2 merchandising of children's toys and/or vans, is prima facie evidence of the Defendants'
3 indifference to the Vanicorn, as they have altered this Plaintiff's highly personal and public
4 transubstantiation of her lifelong artistic interest in unicorns into the Vanicorn (a uniquely San
5 Franciscan work of public, mobile, automotive art, and a redemptive and validating act of
6 recovery from toxic masculinity and a former marriage) and which has, instead, been pilfered by
7 the Defendants as a commercial and corporate conduit for the aspirations of a pair of blue boy
8 elves looking for their father in a mass marketed Disney film, and was accomplished by the 9 Defendants under wickedly misleading pretenses, as confessed by Defendant Kori Rae, as

115. Pursuant to § 987(e), the Plaintiff herein is entitled to injunctive relief, actual damages, punitive damages (which this Honorable Court shall, in its discretion, select an organization or organization engaged in charitable or educational activities involving the fine arts in California to receive), reasonable attorneys' and expert witness fees, and any other relief which this Honorable Court deems proper.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff respectfully requests this Honorable Court to enter judgment in her favor, and against Defendants, and to order the following relief:

1. Compensatory damages on each count in an amount to be determined at trial, in an amount in excess of the arbitration limits for the Northern District of California and/or ; and/or,
2. Disgorgement of Defendants' profits, statutory damages, a declaratory judgment, and/or attorney's fees on Counts I through III; and/or,
3. An Order for Injunctive Relief as to Count II:

- 1 (a) restraining the Defendants and their commercial retailers, associates and/or 2 partners from promoting, selling, marketing, advertising, shipping,
3 transporting (directly or indirectly) or otherwise moving in domestic or 4 foreign commerce, any and all of the Defendants' advertisements,
5 promotion and/or merchandising materials and/or products, and/or the 6 motion picture entitled Onward and products which infringe upon 7 Plaintiff's copyrighted work; and/or,
- 8 (b) ordering Defendants to forfeit (and/or recall) all of the Defendants'
9 infringing advertisements, promotion and/or merchandising materials
10 and/or products, and/or the motion picture entitled Onward; and/or,
- 11 (c) ordering Defendants to recall or remove any and all of its advertising
12 materials, catalogs, websites, books, posters or brochures or other material
13 which contain the Defendants' advertisements, promotion and/or 14 merchandising materials and/or products, and/or the motion picture entitled 15 Onward that infringe on Plaintiff's work; and/or,
- 16 (d) ordering all of Defendants' commercial retailers to refrain from using or 17 marketing the Defendants' infringing advertisements, promotion and/or 18 merchandising materials and/or products, and/or the motion picture entitled 19 Onward in question; and/or,
- 20 (e) ordering that Plaintiff be remunerated for her work in any future versions 21 sold; and/or,
- 22 (f) providing such other relief as the Court deems just, including costs and 23 attorney's fees; and/or,

24 4. A declaratory judgment as to Count III, declaring the Defendants' copyright(s) as 25 they apply to the Defendants' advertisements, promotion and/or merchandising materials and/or 26 products, and/or the motion picture entitled Onward to be invalid as said copyright(s) are 27 derivative of Plaintiff's copyrighted Vanicorn, and Plaintiff is entitled to protection of the 28 copyright. Plaintiff also seeks all attorney's fees and costs incurred in seeking this declaratory action; and/or,

5. As to Count IV, judgment against the Defendants, in accordance with 17 U.S.C. § 1203, for statutory damages in excess of $25,000 for each violation, plus reasonable attorney's fees, costs, and such other relief as the Court deems appropriate; and/or,
