15 BACKGROUND FACTS

16 14. In the summer of 2000, Plaintiff created an original literary work entitled 17 "Squisher the Fish." (hereinafter referred to as the "Subject Work").

18 15. The Subject Work contains material wholly original with Plaintiff that is 19 copyrightable subject matter under the laws of the United States.

20 16. On or about April 27, 2004, Plaintiff applied to the Register of Copyrights 21 for a Certificate of Registration for the Subject Work. The Certificate was issued by the 22 Register of Copyrights on April 27, 2004, and bears registration number TXu1-175-008 .
23 A true and correct copy of this Certificate is attached hereto as Exhibit A.

24 17. Plaintiff is currently and at all relevant times has been the sole proprietor of 25 all right, title, and interest in and to the copyright in the Subject Work.

26 18. On or about April 6, 2001, Plaintiff submitted said Subject Work to 27 Defendants for the purpose of selling her work for use as a movie, published book, 28 television show, game or other commercial application.

1 19. Plaintiff submitted her work to Defendants with the understanding that they 2 would be in a position to determine how best to use her story, and reposed confidence and 3 trust in Defendants to deal fairly and honestly with her.

4 20. Plaintiff submitted her work with the understanding that the submission was 5 confidential and Defendants would not use her Subject Work without her permission or 6 without compensation.

7 21. Defendants knew or should have known that Plaintiff's story submission was 8 in confidence and use of the story was conditioned upon Plaintiff's permission and 9 compensation to Plaintiff.

10 22. Defendants kept and reviewed Plaintiff's Subject Work until approximately 11 June 22, 2001.

12 23. On or about June 21, 2001, Defendants notified Plaintiff that it was their 13 business practice to not consider outside story submissions.

14 24. Contrary to Defendants' representations, during the time Defendants had 15 possession of Plaintiff's Subject Work, Defendants copied Plaintiff's Subject Work and 16 incorporated it into a movie created, produced, distributed and sold by Defendants entitled 17 "Finding Nemo."

18 25. At no time did Defendants obtain Plaintiff's authorization to use her story or 19 provide any compensation to Plaintiff for the use of her story.

20 26. The movie, "Finding Nemo", was first released and shown to the public by 21 Defendants on May 30, 2003.

22 27. Plaintiff first saw the movie, "Finding Nemo" on June 6, 2003. Plaintiff at 23 that point became aware that Defendants had copied her story, "Squisher the Fish" and had 26 movie "Finding Nemo" domestically and internationally after May 29, 2004.

27 29. Each showing of "Finding Nemo" in theaters constituted a separate act of 28 infringement of Plaintiff's rights in her Subject Work.

1           30. On information or belief, Defendants released the movie, "Finding Nemo" on 2 DVD and videocassette for sale and rental. On information and belief, sales and rentals of 3 the DVD and videocassette of "Finding Nemo" continued after May 29, 2004. Each sale 4 and rental of the DVD and videocassette of "Finding Nemo" constituted a separate act of 5 infringement of Plaintiff's rights in her Subject Work.

6           31. On information or belief, sometime after May 30, 2003, Defendants
7 prepared a video game based on the movie, "Finding Nemo." On information or belief, sales 8 of the video game based on "Finding Nemo" continued after May 29, 2004. Each sale of the 9 video game based on the movie, "Finding Nemo" constituted a separate act of infringement
10 of Plaintiff's rights in her Subject Work.

11           32. On information and belief, sometime after May 30, 2003, Defendants 12 prepared children books based on the movie, "Finding Nemo." On information or belief, 13 sales of such children books continued after May 29, 2004. Each sale of children books 14 based on the movie, "Finding Nemo," constituted a separate act of infringement of 15 Plaintiff's rights in her Subject Work.

16           33. On information and belief, Defendants have made toys and other merchandise
17 based on the story and characters in the movie, "Finding Nemo." On information or belief, 18 sales of such toys and other merchandise continued after May 29, 2004. Each such toy and 19 other merchandise constitutes a separate act of infringement of Plaintiff's rights in her 20 Subject Work.

21           34. On information and belief, Defendants have prepared live performances
22 based on the movie, "Finding Nemo." On information or belief, such live performances 23 continued after May 29, 2004. Each such live performance constituted a separate act of 24 infringement of Plaintiff's rights in her Subject Work.

25           35. On information and belief, Plaintiff alleges that Defendants have received 26 substantial revenues and profits from the showing of "Finding Nemo" in theaters, from the 8 38. Through their conduct alleged herein, Defendants have infringed Plaintiff's 9 copyright by reproducing, adapting, distributing and/or displaying the movie "Finding 17 indifference to the rights of Plaintiff.

18 41. As a direct and proximate result of the infringements by Defendants, and each 19 of them, Plaintiff is entitled to damages and Defendants' profits in amounts to be proven at

27 basis alleges that unless enjoined or restrained by this Court, Defendants will continue to 28 engage in conduct violative of California Business & Professions Code, Section 17200.
